TORONTO.

Toronto, March 26.—Trade was decidedly slow at the west cattle market to-day. The eastern markets show no demand now and city butchers are well supplied for the Easter trade. The run was small, but this did not prevent a general sagging in prices. It consisted of 54 cars, containing 906 cattle, 470 sheep and lambs, 300 hogs and 360 calves.

There is no demand for exporters because the lack of space on cattle boats prevents shipping. Choice are decided at $5 to $5.25; bulls and cows, $4 to $4.25.
