The business which has been done by this firm for a long term of years, is now, we regret, in the hands of the assignee. When ex Mayor Arkell departed from this vicinity in March he left a power of attorney with Mr. H. J. Lipscomb to conduct the business. Lately he changed his mind, revoked the power of attorney and ordered the goods to be shipped to Souris, Man. Mr. Lipscomb laid the matter before the principal creditors, and, acting on their advice, the sasignment was made. The liabilities, principally to Toronto firms, will be about $3,000.—News.
