

Bishop Tucker he confirmed 2,025, ordained five natives to the Diaconate and three to the Priesthood, and licensed twenty-two lay-readers. The ordination service was attended by between 3,000 and 4,000 persons.

Bishop Tucker writes :

"Is it not a matter of the deepest thankfulness and praise to God that we have at this moment upwards of 30,000 Gospel readers in Uganda? It means not merely that 20,000 people are able to read a Gospel, but that practically every day of their lives these people are engaged in the study of the Word of God—all the books of the Bible, in fact, they can get hold of. For hours they pore over their books, comparing Scripture with Scripture. The result is a knowledge of Scripture far beyond that of the average professing Christians at home, and a change of life as significant as it is real. Men who once lived lives of debauchery, sin, and immorality, have their fetters broken, and go forth continually into the glorious liberty of the Gospel of Christ.—Quarterly Message.

MEMORIAL CHURCH AT KU-CHENG.

On Easter Sunday the Rev. J. Martin opened a chapel at Ku-cheng (South China) built in memory of the missionaries massacred in August, 1895. At the opening service nearly three hundred were present. On various beams in the building texts have been engraved, while the brass memorial-plate bears the following inscription:—"What I do thou knowest not now, but shalt know hereafter.' We praise Thy Holy Name for all Thy servants who finished their course and won the crown at Hwasang, August 1st, 1895. 'If it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.' They with Him—He with us."

Let us all join in Mr. Martin's prayer:—

"May all who worship there get to know more of the Communion of Saints, and be followers of the good examples of those in whose memory the chapel is built, and may all be with them partakers of the Heavenly Kingdom."
