

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Special.

Rev. A. J. McDonald, Wolfville, preaches to-day.

Bro. Rev. J. D. Spidell, who was to have spoken on Temperance on Monday evening last, had to return home Monday. He will be heard from later.

Rev. Judson Kempton preached last Sunday. "The World Beautiful" and "The Pearl of Great Price," were subjects from which excellent lessons were drawn. Bro. Kempton has a pleasant delivery, and his sermons are presented in such a manner that the youngest may be benefited. We wish for him much blessing in his ministry.

Rev. Z. L. Fash is reported very ill at Port Williams.

Supply for next Sunday.—The Central Baptist Association, which meets in Dartmouth on June 21st, will arrange for pulpit supply. Let there be a full house, and much prayer for blessing. May it be a holy day indeed.

"Sunday School from 12 to 1 o'clock." The question has been asked, would it be wise to change the hour of the Sunday School, as above. The parents are asked, and to-day the scholars are to inform the teachers. What say you?
