

A GOOD RULE

Procure the New Books as Soon as Published

Among some of the new books we may mention : "Yesterday Framed in To-day," a Story of the Christ and how To-day Received Him, by "Pansy"; cloth, illustrated, 70c. "The Cross Triumphant," by Florence M. Kingsley, the author of the justly popular books "Titus," "Stephen," "Paul," a new story well worthy of the excellent series to which it forms a complement; cloth, $1.00; paper, 60c. "Penelope's Experiences in Scotland," from the pen of the clever, bright, and witty Kate Douglas Wiggin, whom the girls are looking to more and more for their special reading. We heartily recommend this book; price $1.25, cloth. Rev. Charles M. Sheldon's new book, "The Miracle at Markham:" How Twelve Churches Became One, is said to be his best work, and should be in every Library as soon as possible; cloth, 50c.; paper, 30c. An interesting story, "A Double Thread," is the latest production from the pen of Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler, the author of one of the most popular books of the past year, "Concerning Isabel Carnaby"; paper, 75c.; cloth, $1.25. Another book that comes to us with a good recommendation is from the pen of the celebrated authoress, Amelia E. Barr, who well maintains the popularity won with her earliest stories; this new one, "I, Thou, and the Other One," is said to be the best she has written since "A Bow of Orange Ribbon"; paper, 60c.; cloth, $1.00. Two books that the boys will be glad to find in the Library and which will be found instructive as well as intensely interesting, are "The Cruise of the Cachalot:" Round the World after Spermin Whales, by Frank T. Bullen, first mate; illustrated, paper, 75c.; cloth, $1.25; Kipling says, "It is immense"; and "Fights for the Flag," by W. H. Fitchett, author of "Deeds that Won the Empire," with portraits and plans; cloth, $1.00. The London Spectator says, "Not since Macaulay ceased to write has English literature produced a writer capable of infusing such life and vigor into historical scenes." The raising of the curtain on some of nature's mysteries will be seen by reading Grant Allen's fascinating book, "Flashlights on Nature," very fully illustrated by Frederick Enoch; cloth, $1.25. It is desirable that our boys and girls, as well as adults, should know more about the wonders of nature than they do.

These books, along with any others your school would like to have on approbation, we will gladly send on for your inspection. We pay freight one way. It will be to the interest of all to consider the plan of ordering the new books as they are published, and not wait to purchase once or twice a year as may have been done in the past.

Let us hear from you.
