BUSINESS TROUBLES.

John A. Walter, grocer, Berlin, has failed for $1,000.

Bell & Co., dry goods, Trent, N. S., have failed for $2500.

J. R. Cronis hardware, Galt has assigned. He owns $2,500

J. B. Meloche, trader, Popocatepec, has assigned to Kent & Tinsdale.

Chartrand & La Haise, furniture city recently held a meeting of their creditors.

Mr. J. Dickie, committee member, Bracebridge, has assigned to John C. Davidson.

J. Bais, jr., hotel, Buckingham, has assigned on the demand of Ang. Leblanc Laboratories $1,500.

Ed. Jordan, jeweler and watchmaker, Chatham, is endeavoring to compromise at 54c on the dollar.

Elizabeth Rieux, general store, St. Jean de
Dieu, has assigned to Paré & Jodan,
Quebec. Liabilities $3,500.

W. T. Hany, boots and shoes, Shelburne, Ont., who recently assigned, has submitted an offer of 50 per cent. He owns $2,500.

J. In McPherson & Co., manufacturers of boots and shoes, Hamilton, as above mentioned, have made an assignment to C. S. Scott.

L. Valer, saloon, city, has submitted an offer of life in the dollar, which has not been accepted, and the business will likely be sold out.

Sinclair Bros., general store, Carter, Ont., are offering creditors 5c on the dollar cash, liabilities $2,900. They were recently burnt out.

These instruments are based upon the same general principle, and are just as accurate as our regular Standard Portable Direct Current Voltmeters and Ammeters, but are much larger, and the working parts are enclosed in a neatly designed dust-proof cast iron case, which effectively shields the instruments from disturbing influences of external magnetic fields.

WISCON STANDARD Portable Direct Reading Voltmeters and Meters, Volts, Ammeters and Milliammeters, WATTMETERS and VOLT-METERS, for ALTERNATING and Direct Current, A.C.

Our portable instruments are recognized as standards throughout the world.

They are the most reliable, absolute standards for laboratory use.

Giese & Graves, engravers, London, have assigned for £2,000. Another small failure is that of N. Richardson, grocer, Cornwall, who owes £250.

Chas. Brain, grocer, Huntsville, is endeavoring to compromise with his creditors. Liable for $5,000, assets $1,000. W. A. Ross, tailor, Fergus, wishes to settle at 25 per cent on debts of $700.

John Muldron & Co., wholesale woollens and tailors' trimmings, Toronto, are in difficulties owing chiefly to overstocking. The firm is said to have a stock on hand valued at $25,000, and claims a surplus of upwards of $20,000. John Muldron the only partner was formerly of the firm of McMaster & Co., wholesale dry goods, but retired in February '95 and started for himself with a fair capital.

Alphonse Labelle, of Sault aux Recollets, has assigned on the demand of Joseph H. Malette. The assets at the stock in trade of wines, liquors, cigars, fixt res and books. Added to these are two lots of land in St. Laurent Village. The liabilities are about $5,000. The largest creditors are A. E. Malette, $224; J. H. Malette, $315; Laporte, Martin & Co., $27; Bouscasson Bros., $25; Dawes & Co., $22, and C. Martel, $219.

A demand of assignment has been made on P. Ducreux, carriage maker, city, at the instance of Faucher & Fils. It is stated his liabilities amount to $40,000. He has been in business a number of years and patented an axle on which he spent money. For a time J. S. Bousquet of the Peoples Bank was a special partner for $5,000. He erected fine premises on Craig street, but they were heavily mortgaged and his interest account must have eaten up much of his profits.

J. Warren & Co., have made a demand of assignment on Thomas Kearns, grocer. His assets are his stock of groceries and liquors 53 Junior street, a horse and wagon and book debts. The principal creditors are Bell, Simpson & Co., $175; Caverhill, Hughes & Co., $819; Hyslop & Hunter, $214; Hudson, Hebert & Co., $742; N. Quintal & Co., $358; J. Whelan & Co., Daniel Kearns, $369, and Dame Elizabeth O'Neil (Mrs. Thomas Kearns), $2,000. The liabilities are about $4,000.

Warrants have been issued at the instance of Felix Bresse and K. Skovil, by Police Magistrate Deacon, of Brackville, for the arrest of J. E. Brown, late treasurer of the township of Hasland and Burgess, on three charges of embezzlement of large sums of money, while acting in that capacity. Brown has fled and cannot be caught. Bresse and Skovil are two of his bondsmen, against whom the township intends taking legal steps to make the defaulting treasurer's shortage good.
