TORONTO, 31st March, 1853.

DEAR SIR,—

Several warm and attached friends of mine have called upon me to know whether I would be a candidate at the forthcoming Election for this City, and with a desire to defer to the opinion of the Electors to be expressed in some legitimate and satisfactory way, I have heretofore declined returning any other answer than this, "If it be the desire of my former friends that I should be a Candidate, I would accede, and if elected, would endeavour to serve them as faithfully as I had already done." Since then a rumour has been circulated by some designing persons, that the state of my health would render it out of my power to attend to my duties if elected. I must confess that, with many others, I have suffered some indisposition during the last five or six weeks, but I trust in Providence, as I am now very much better, that I may speedily recover altogether, and be enabled to take part—whether in or out of Parliament—in the absorbing questions of the day. By the advice of several of my friends; to do away with any possible harm which the report I have referred to may produce, I beg to state that I am prepared at once to enter the list against any other candidates who may offer, unless a decided majority of the conservative Electors should otherwise determine.

I am, Sir, Your obedient servant, HENRY SHERWOOD.

DRY GOODS FOR THE WINTER.

With great inducements in BONNET and CAP RIBBONS; Bonnet Ribbons worth 9d. selling for 6d; Cap Ribbons worth 7d. selling for 5d.; and a great variety in the same proportion. J. C. has within the last few days bought at very low prices a large lot of BLANKETS and FLANNELS, which will enable him to sell them to Retail buyers at wholesale prices, thus effecting a saving for the benefit of his customers.

The Staple or Domestic Department

Will be found well furnished, and offering great bargains, having been bought within the last two months, with nearly the same advantages as the Blankets and Flannels already mentioned. Particular attention is called to Bleached Shirtings, Grey Factory Cotton and Shirtings, Striped Shirtings, Prints and Derries. Dennims and Drills, Rough Hollands, Draperies and Huckabacks, for Towels, Grey Cloths and Satinets, &c., &c.

The Millinery Department

And for price, quality, &c., has no hesitation in saying that in an honest way of doing business, no house in the Province of Canada can under sell him, and beyond an honest way of doing business, he makes no comparisons whatever.

The whole Stock being manufactured in his premises, with every advantage for cutting and making up, is most calculated for giving satisfaction to buyers.

J. C. has a few maxims in the management of his daily increasing business, which from principle he cannot deviate from, viz.:

On all occasions speaking the truth, whether in favour of the buyer, or against the Seller. Serving a customer in a way that secures their calling again should an opportunity present itself. Dealing with others in a way that he would wish others to deal with himself.—Asking the lowest price at once.

A nimble sixpence is better than a slow shilling. Small profits and quick returns makes a heavy purse.

AN EXAMINATION OF STOCK AND PRICES IS RESPECTFULLY SOLICITED.
