5. Conference of the Parties

A Conference of the Parties for the climate change convention shall be established as provided in the following provision, with the addition that the Conference should make liberal use of possibilities of observer status and consultative status with respect to paragraph 5 below.

- (1) A Conference of the Parties is hereby established. The first meeting of the Conference of the Parties shall be convened by the Secretariat designated on an interim basis under article [...] not later than one year after entry into force of this Convention. Thereafter, ordinary meetings of the Conference of the Parties shall be held at regular intervals to be determined by the Conference at its first meeting.
- (2) Extraordinary meetings of the Conference of the Parties shall be held at such other times as may be deemed necessary by the Conference, or at the written request of any Party, provided that, within six months of the request being communicated to them by the Secretariat, it is supported by at least one third of the Parties.
- (3) The Conference of the Parties shall by consensus agree upon and adopt rules of procedure and financial rules for itself and for any subsidiary bodies it may establish, as well as financial provisions governing the functioning of the Secretariat.
- (4) The Conference of the Parties shall keep under continuous review the implementation of this Convention and, in addition, shall:
 - (a) establish the form and the intervals for transmitting the information to be submitted in accordance with article [...] and consider such information as well as reports submitted by any subsidiary body;
 - (b) review the scientific information on climate change;
