

ANNEX 2

(See Article 48)

DEFINITION OF TERMS USED IN THE INTERNATIONAL TELECOMMUNICATION CONVENTION

Administration: Any department or service of a government responsible for implementing the obligations undertaken in the International Telecommunication Convention and the Regulations annexed thereto.

Private operating agency: Any individual or company or corporation other than a governmental establishment or agency, which operates a telecommunication installation intended for an international telecommunication service or which is capable of causing harmful interference with such a service.

Recognized private operating agency: Any private operating agency, as defined above, which operates a service of public correspondence or of broadcasting and upon which the obligations provided for in Article 20 are imposed by the Member or Associate Member in whose territory the head office of the agency is situated.

Delegate: A person representing a government at a plenipotentiary conference, or a person representing a Government or an administration at an administrative conference, or at a meeting of an International Consultative Committee.

Delegation: The totality of the delegates, representatives and experts as the case may be of the same country. Each delegation may include one or more attachés and one or more interpreters. Each Member and Associate Member shall be free to make up its delegation as it wishes. In particular, it may include in its delegation, in the capacity of delegates or of advisers, representatives of private telecommunication operating agencies which it recognizes, and of other private enterprises interested in the telecommunication field which are recognized as such by their respective governments.

Representative: A person representing a recognized private operating agency at an administrative conference, or at a meeting of an International Consultative Committee.

Expert: A person representing a national scientific or industrial organization authorized by the Government of its country to be present at an administrative conference or at a meeting of an International Consultative Committee.

Observer: A person representing a Government, or a person representing an international organization with which the International Telecommunication Union has an interest in co-operating.

International Service: A telecommunication service between offices or stations in different countries or between mobile stations which are not in the same country or are subject to different countries.

Mobile Service: A service of radiocommunication between mobile and land stations or between mobile stations.

Broadcasting Service: A radiocommunication service of transmissions to be received directly by the general public.¹⁾

¹⁾ This service may include transmissions of sounds or transmissions by television, facsimile or other means.
