

ARTICLE 9ATTENDANCE OF PERSONS IN THE REQUESTING STATE
TO GIVE EVIDENCE OR ASSIST AN INVESTIGATION

Upon the request of the Requesting State, the Requested State shall invite any person in the Requested State to assist in the investigation or to appear as a witness and shall seek that person's cooperation to that end. The person whose evidence or assistance is sought shall be informed of any expenses and allowances payable. If that person requires it, the Requesting State may provide an advance of funds in respect of transportation and living expenses. This advance may be paid by the Embassy of that State located in the Requested State.

ARTICLE 10SEARCH AND SEIZURE

- (1) To the extent permitted by its legislation, the Requested State shall carry out requests for search and seizure.
- (2) The competent authority that has executed a request for search and seizure shall provide such information as may be required by the Requesting State concerning, but not limited to, the identity, condition, integrity and continuity of possession of the documents, records or objects seized and the circumstances of the seizure.
- (3) The Requesting State shall observe any conditions imposed by the Requested State in relation to any seized documents, records or objects which may be delivered to the Requesting State.

ARTICLE 11TRANSFER TO THE REQUESTING STATE OF DETAINED PERSONS TO GIVE EVIDENCE OR ASSIST AN INVESTIGATION IN THE REQUESTING STATE

- (1) A person in custody in the Requested State shall, at the request of the Requesting State, be temporarily transferred to the Requesting State to assist investigations or to give evidence in proceedings provided that the person consents to the transfer.
- (2) When the person transferred is required to be kept in custody under the law of the Requested State, the Requesting State shall hold that person in custody and shall return the person in custody at the conclusion of the execution of the request.
- (3) When the sentence imposed upon the transferred person expires, or the Requested State advises the Requesting State that the transferred person is no longer required to be held in custody, that person shall be set at liberty and be treated as a person present in the Requesting State pursuant to a request seeking that person's attendance.
