

Number 10	(1) The member of the Board appointed on the expiration of any term of office is eligible to be re-appointed for a further term of office.	(1) The Superintendent on the expiration of any term of office is eligible to be re-appointed for a further term of office.	Further term
Amendment 11	(2) In the event of the absence or resignation of the Superintendent, or if the office of the Superintendent is vacant, the Governor in Council may appoint a qualified person to hold office in the office of the Superintendent for a term not exceeding six months, and that person shall, while holding that office, have all the powers, duties and functions of the Superintendent under this Part or any other Act of Parliament.	(2) In the event of the absence or resignation of the Superintendent, or if the office of the Superintendent is vacant, the Governor in Council may appoint a qualified person to hold office in the office of the Superintendent for a term not exceeding six months, and that person shall, while holding that office, have all the powers, duties and functions of the Superintendent under this Part or any other Act of Parliament.	In case of absence
Amendment 12	(3) The member of the Board appointed on the expiration of any term of office is eligible to be re-appointed for a further term of office.	(3) The member of the Board appointed on the expiration of any term of office is eligible to be re-appointed for a further term of office.	Further term
Amendment 13	(4) The Superintendent shall perform the duties required to be performed by the Superintendent in the Act or portions thereof referred to in the schedule to this Part and shall maintain and report to the Minister from time to time on all matters connected with the administration of those Acts or portions thereof.	(4) The Superintendent shall perform the duties required to be performed by the Superintendent in the Act or portions thereof referred to in the schedule to this Part and shall maintain and report to the Minister from time to time on all matters connected with the administration of those Acts or portions thereof.	Duties of the Superintendent
Amendment 14	(5) Where, pursuant to the Act that applies to it, a financial institution or any of its officers or employees engaged in (a) advertising securities, (b) trading in securities, or (c) providing advisory or management services in respect of securities, the Superintendent shall examine and include into the carrying out of those activities and report to the Minister from time to time on all matters connected therewith.	(5) Where, pursuant to the Act that applies to it, a financial institution or any of its officers or employees engaged in (a) advertising securities, (b) trading in securities, or (c) providing advisory or management services in respect of securities, the Superintendent shall examine and include into the carrying out of those activities and report to the Minister from time to time on all matters connected therewith.	Reporting
Amendment 15	(6) The Superintendent is responsible for the administration of such regulations as the Governor in Council may make respecting the carrying out of the activities referred to in subsection (5) of financial institutions and their officers, and employees and every financial institution and every officer and employee thereof that carries out any such	(6) The Superintendent is responsible for the administration of such regulations as the Governor in Council may make respecting the carrying out of the activities referred to in subsection (5) of financial institutions and their officers, and employees and every financial institution and every officer and employee thereof that carries out any such	Responsibility to administer regulations