

[Interpretation]
 M. Gilchrist: Je suis désolé de voir que le projet de résolution n'a pas été adopté. Je suis sûr que si nous avions pu nous entendre sur les points en litige, nous aurions pu adopter le projet de résolution. Je suis sûr que si nous avions pu nous entendre sur les points en litige, nous aurions pu adopter le projet de résolution. Je suis sûr que si nous avions pu nous entendre sur les points en litige, nous aurions pu adopter le projet de résolution.

[Text]
 Mr. Gilchrist: I am sorry to see that the draft resolution has not been adopted. I am sure that if we had been able to agree on the points in dispute, we could have adopted the draft resolution. I am sure that if we had been able to agree on the points in dispute, we could have adopted the draft resolution.

[Text]
 Mr. Gilchrist: I am sorry to see that the draft resolution has not been adopted. I am sure that if we had been able to agree on the points in dispute, we could have adopted the draft resolution. I am sure that if we had been able to agree on the points in dispute, we could have adopted the draft resolution.

[Text]
 Mr. Gilchrist: I am sorry to see that the draft resolution has not been adopted. I am sure that if we had been able to agree on the points in dispute, we could have adopted the draft resolution. I am sure that if we had been able to agree on the points in dispute, we could have adopted the draft resolution.

[Text]
 The Chairman: There are now two amendments proposed. The first amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones. The second amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones. The first amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones. The second amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones.

[Text]
 The Chairman: There are now two amendments proposed. The first amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones. The second amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones. The first amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones. The second amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones.

[Text]
 The Chairman: There are now two amendments proposed. The first amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones. The second amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones. The first amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones. The second amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones.

[Text]
 The Chairman: There are now two amendments proposed. The first amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones. The second amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones. The first amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones. The second amendment is proposed by Mr. Handfield-Jones.

The Chairman: What does Article 13 cover?

Mr. Handfield-Jones: Article 13 covers the articles which are very detailed provisions which are withdrawn and liquidated and which are of the general interest, as it really only leaves Clause 14.

The Chairman: Will Clause 14 take long?

Mr. Handfield-Jones: Shall I say five words on it?

The Chairman: Will you agree that we hear the remarks on Clause 14, concisely before we adjourn?

Mr. Gilchrist: Mr. Chairman, I am anxious that it can be done in five words.

The Chairman: He did not say five words. He said five minutes.

Le président: Que couvre l'article 13?

M. Handfield-Jones: L'article 13 comprend des dispositions très détaillées sur les articles qui sont retirés et liquidés et qui sont d'intérêt général, car il ne laisse que l'article 14.

Le président: Sera-t-il long à discuter?

M. Handfield-Jones: Voulez-vous que je dise cinq mots à ce sujet?

Le président: Monsieur, voulez-vous que nous entendions vos remarques sur l'article 14 avant de lever la séance?

M. Gilchrist: Monsieur le président, je suis anxieux que cela puisse se faire en cinq mots.

Le président: Non, pas cinq mots, cinq minutes.