lower maximum rate of pay, a demotion, either voluntarily at the request of the employee, or as the result of a joint decision between the employee and the supervisor, they are represented in our statistics. Employees appointed to a lower level within their occupational group: 1968—672; 1969—1,475; 1970—1,794; 1971—2,115; 1972—2,460; 1973—2,370; 1974—2,832; 1975—2,872. Occasionally a deputy head may find no alternative but to resort to Section 31 of the Public Service Employment Act, which provides for the appointment to a lower maximum rate of pay of an employee for incompetence or incapacity in the performance of his or her duties. During the last ten years, these appointments have numbered as follows: 1967—1; 1968—8; 1969—8; 1970—7; 1971—7; 1972—2; 1973—2; 1974—3; 1975—7; 1976—7 (January 1 to November 24, 1976).

2. Records for years prior to 1975 are not kept in such a way that the salary ranges of these persons can be readily identified.

FAMILY ALLOWANCE PAYMENTS BY PROVINCE

Question No. 1,182—Mr. Lambert (Bellechasse):

For the fiscal year (a) 1974-75 (b) 1975-76, did the government make any family allowance payments and, if so, by province (i) what was the total amount (ii) for how many children were such payments made?

Hon. Marc Lalonde (Minister of National Health and Welfare):

PUBLIC SERVANTS RE-ASSIGNED BECAUSE OF DISSATISFACTION

Question No. 1,177—Mr. Herbert:

1. In each of the past ten years, how many public servants have been reassigned to other duties because of dissatisfaction with their performance?

2. What are the salary ranges of these persons?

Hon. John Roberts (Secretary of State): I am informed by the Public Service Commission as follows: 1. Every year a large number of public servants are re-assigned to other duties because their employer is dissatisfied with their performance. If these re-assignments result in an appointment at the same rate of pay, they are treated as transfers and as such cannot be distinguished from transfers for other reasons. However when public servants are appointed to a position at a level with a
