

Business of the House

Leader at this point to tell us what the legislation will be for tomorrow. I understand that there has been some change in the proposed legislation to be offered by the Government already this evening. If I could have some information, it would be helpful to all sides of the House.

[Translation]

So if the Government spokesman would give us some information concerning the House business for tomorrow we would be very grateful.

Mr. Grisé: Madam Speaker, I take note of the question of the Hon. Member for Windsor West (Mr. Gray). I will immediately advise our Deputy House Leader and he will be getting in touch with the House leaders of the other Parties at the earliest opportunity.

Mr. Prud'homme: It does not make sense!

[English]

Mr. Cassidy: I rise on a matter of privilege. I want to say how my privileges have been expanded and enlarged in the House tonight by the unusual presence of spectators from all across Canada who came to see us in action, and I want to say "thank you" to them.

The Acting Speaker (Mrs. Champagne): The Hon. Member for Ottawa Centre is not new to the House and should know that the Speaker is the only one to recognize people in the gallery.

Mr. Lewis: As I was about to say before I was so rudely interrupted, we have discussed matters with Members respecting Bills that are very important to the West. Tomorrow we will do the appropriate stages of Bill C-92, report stage; Bill C-131 to committee; and Bill C-112 to committee.
