Montreal, November 25/22

Professor A.B.J.Moore,
Dean of the Dept of Pharmacy,
McGill University.

Dear Sir:

We the undersigned beg to call to your attention a matter of very vital importance in the prosecution of our professional careers. It is a matter which is not entirely novel but yet we feel that it is one to which attention should again be given. The Department of Pharmacy of the Faculty of Medicine of our University has been in existence six years but in contradistinction to its sister universities, particularly that of Montreal, McGill has not as yet seen fit to confer a degree of Bachelor of Pharmacy upon those who have graduated from this department.

We can readily perceive that this has possibly been due to the fact that the Department during its embryonic years has feared to advance too rapidly, and was forced to assume due precautionary measures correlative to the situation in which it found itself.

We feel confident however that this incipient stage has been encompassed. The Department has undoubtedly acquired much valuable experience in this matter and possibly have reached the opinion that such a degree is warranted and should be conferred.

We may humbly adduce the fact that this degree would be of incalculable benefit and value to the students of the Department. The Pharmaceutical Association of the Province of Quebec has repeatedly expressed the statement that the presence of such a
