Appletons' Popular Science Monthly.

For the last half century scientific methods of study have been gradually extending, until they are now applied to every branch of human knowledge.

The great problems of society are making urgent demands upon public attention. Science furnishes the only means by which they can be intelligently studied.

This magazine gives the results of scientific research in these and other fields. Its articles are from the pens of the most eminent scientists of the world.

It translates the technical language of the specialist into plain English suitable for the general reader.

Among the subjects discussed in its pages are: Psychology, Education, The Functions of Government, Municipal Reform, Sumptuary Legislation, Relations of Science and Religion, Hygiene, Sanitation, and Domestic Economy, Natural History, Geography, Travel, Anthropology, and the physical sciences.

Prominent among its recent contributors are such men as

ANDREW D. WHITE,
DAVID A. WELLS,
APPLETON MORGAN,
JAMES SULLY,
WILLIAM T. LUSK, M. D.,
FREDERICK STARR,
GARRET P. SERVISS,
