Killed by Live Wire
George Gallagher, 26 Poullet street, was electrocuted at the steel plant early yesterday morning. He was employed as trouble-man at the plant, and shortly after six o'clock something went wrong with the machinery, and while attempting to remedy the trouble Gallagher touched a live wire and was instantly killed. He was 30 years of age, and leaves a wife and small family.

Machine Gun Staff.

A further announcement in the personnel of the staff of the 86th Machine Gun Battallon was made on Saturday by Lieut.-Col. Labatt. Three officers of the 13th Royal Regiment—Lieuts. H. E. B. Coyne, G. Street Bazzar. Street Bazaar.

A street bazaar and carnival will be held on North Holton avenue next Wednesday afternoon and evening, Sept. 1. An excellent program has been arranged for, including selections by the 91st Highlanders' Band. Mayor Walters will open the bazaar at three o'clock. The proceeds will be devoted to the machine gun fund. The meeting proved to be one of the most enthusiastic yet held, and as a result of the stirring address given, several young men went to the recruiting office nearby and offered their services. Speakers were Mayor Walters, Charles G. Booker, R. H. Frost. Sam Landers and Controller T. Jutten. Another big meeting was held last evening and was largely attended. G. Edwin Main presided and delivered a stirring address, in which he urged all young men of Hamilton to join the colors immediately.

Dr. Carr, whose only son enlisted as a private, and is now fighting at the Dardanelles, scored the young men of Hamilton and other cities who have not yet enlisted, saying that they should be ashamed to walk the streets in civilian clothes. Took Five Straight.

Hamilton took five straight games and the series from St. Thomas by winning a doubleheader on Saturday. Both games were one-sided, and Hamilton had no difficulty in winning them. The first game resulted in a score 7-0, while the second ended 12-5. The Saints never had a chance in the first contest, only securing four safe hits off Armstrong's delivery, while the locals gathered 11 bingles off Fulton. Hamilton played errorless ball, while the visitors made two miscues.

The second affair developed into a burlesque, it being quite apparent that the visitors were not over-anxious to win. Howick did the pitching and was hit freely. Hamilton secured three runs in the second and two in the third. The Saints made two in the fifth, when Dolan weakened, and then the locals got another. In the sixth two errors and four hits gave the sectionmen three runs, which made the score 6-5 in Hamilton's favor, and the fans commenced to become anxious, but there was no danger as Hamilton came right back and scored six runs in the sixth after two men had been retired. The feature of the game was McGroarty's single in the sixth which sent three men across the plate. Scores:

Only preliminary arrangements have been made so far, but it is expected that the hospital will be ready for use in about a month. Mrs. Crerar is organizing a body of women to furnish the residence with hospital beds and equipment and to make everything as comfortable as possible for the convalescent soldiers. An examining board will also be appointed so that only the worst cases will be admitted. This is the first hospital of its kind to be established in Canada since the outbreak of war, so Hamilton is once more leading in the matter of assisting the soldiers and the government.
