

Mr Maturin returned to church of England.

PREFACE.

THE following remarks upon Mr. Maturin's letter, have been prepared at the request of friends whose wishes the writer has been anxious to meet. They have been penned under many disadvantages, but are committed to the press, in reliance upon the blessing of God, and with the hope that, in some small degree, they may promote the cause of Truth. The author has the satisfaction to see that other replies are announced, and trusts that what is deficient in his own, will be supplied by abler pens.

In Church of Scotland, December 1869. "Mr Maturin's first Pamphlet has already met with a full and convincing answer written by one of our body, to whom I desire publicly to return ^{my} thanks for his well timed and very able defense of our Church against an ingenious and unprovoked attack."
