

ER

the latter said
thought if

and better ap-
s."

who looked
determined

the land Mr.
you'll have to
sale. Don't offer?"

not preserved

my lawyers
you a check."

Mrs. Osborn
t up.

it," he said

ward to con-
— you have

admit that
but now I'm

and a better
and gave Kit

lost to us.
new school,

house well."
and Kit, who

in the hall.
red. "Kit

reconciled.
we shall all

"Ah," she

OSBORN'S SURRENDER

337

said, "I knew long since that Kit was wonderful! In one way, it wouldn't have mattered if he had saved Tarnside or not; but now you and father know what a dear he is!"

THE END