SQUIRM IF YOU LIKE ENERGY REMAINS SAME

Prof. McLennan's Scientific Reminder of Extent of Human Futility.

"What I am going to handle to-day is not matter," said Dr. McLennan in opening the second of his fascinating lectures at the university yesterday. "You can't see it or smell it. It has as real an existence as matter. Yet it is a very vague thing, after you can measure it and find the value of it, and buy it and sell it."

The lecture was on energy, its transmission and transformations. A host of experiments showed the protean quality of this energy which could be changed into so many different forms. Energy was the power to do work, the lecturer set out to illustrate, and energy of position became energy of motion, kinetic energy, heat, light, electricity, magnetism, sound, and chemical action. The energy of the wind had been shown by an English professor to be capable of being turned into electricity sufficient to run all the commercial industries in Britain.

Energy a Fixed Quantity.

"All the action you see in this world to-day is just an example of energy in change," said the lecturer. "Energy is just as tangible as matter. It is never lost and never created. You are born into the world and you die. In the meantime you squirm about and twist about, but you add nothing to the sum of energy. All physical action—all we do is just a manifestation of forms of energy. Energy only comes into the world from an outside source, from the sun. It comes in the form of light and electricity. It is changed into heat. The energy is imparted to the water and turned into molecular energy and by clouds and rain is stored in great reservoirs. At Niagara it is changed into electric energy again, then the energy of rotation." The innumerable experiments held the close attention of the audience and there was prolonged applause at the close.

This afternoon at 2.30, the lecture will be on "Clouds and Soap Bubbles." Everyone should go.

EARLY IN FEBRUARY
Corridor Guess at Date for Opening of Ontario Legislature.

"When will the legislature meet?" continues to be the countdown enlivener of the holiday season at the parliament buildings.

"Early in February" is regarded as a fairly good guess, that this plan will succeed, unless the troops facing each other get beyond control.

TOUCHING SCENE IN COURT

In Presence of Family, Fred Gandage Pays Penalty of Theft.

Surrounded by his wife and family, in Judge Winchester's court, Fred Gandage sat waiting his turn for trial. As he stepped into the dock he kissed his wife and children and pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing an umbrella and clock from Simpson's store. J. W. Curry, K.C., his counsel, said he had been drinking, and that this was his first mistake. "He has made this one mistake," was his plea; "he is a hard working man, and has been a good citizen, and I would ask your honor to be as lenient as possible."

He was sentenced to ten days' hard labor, and was led away after a touching farewell to his family.

Gerald Featherstone pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing $33.65 from one Joseph Nichols of York Township. He was a young man of about 20 years, and was without counsel.

At Crown Attorney Baird's request Featherstone was remanded until Saturday.

TWO KILLED

Aviator's Machine Fell While Carrying a Passenger.

PARIS, Dec. 28.—The worst aeroplane accident in the history of French aviation occurred to-day at Issy, when Marquis Mario Paulin and Alexandra Laffon, chief pilot of the Antoinette School of Aviation, were killed in an 80-foot fall of their Antoinette monoplane.

Laffon's wife witnessed the tragedy. Within 10 minutes of the time she kissed her husband farewell she threw herself in a paroxysm of grief over his mangled body. She is in a critical condition from the shock.

Laffon was piloting the machine, and Paulin, the owner of the aeroplane, was his passenger. They were testing for the $20,000 prize offered for the speediest two-passenger flight from Paris to Brussels and return.

SCHOOL KIDDIES WIN

Car Tickets Good Between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Except on Saturdays.

Judge Morson hit the Toronto Street Railway hard yesterday morning when he decided that school children's tickets were good between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., except Saturday, and so put an end to a fight that has been going thru the courts for some time.

The case was that of P. R. Burton, who was convicted by Magistrate Kingsford in the lower court for non-payment of a child's car fare. Judge Morson declared that in his opinion the police magistrate was wrong in his reading of the agreement between the city and the street railway, and therefore quashed the decision.

So from now on the kiddies may use their school children's tickets whether they are on their way to school or not.

TAFI WILL RUN AGAIN.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Word has gone out definitely among close friends of President Taft that he will be an active candidate for renomination in 1912. Not only that, but steps are being taken to clear the way for Mr. Taft's renomination. The rough edges are being smoothed over where it is possible and friendships are being sought rather than enemies.

Unauthorized Autopsy.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Eight thousand dollars damages for performing an unauthorized autopsy on the body of Mrs. Jane Allen Boyd has been awarded the woman's children by a supreme court jury in the borough of Queens.

Public Amusements

Since the retirement of Ellen Terry from active stage work, the position of England's foremost emotional actress has been universally conceded to Miss Lena Ashwell. Miss Ashwell was fortunate in the early part of her career in having the advice of Miss Terry, and she later appeared with Sir Henry Irving in the Lyceum as Elaine in "King Arthur" and in the great English tragedian's marvellous production of "Richard III." Before she attained her present established position, Miss Ashwell toured with George Alexander in "Lady Windermere's Fan," and with Arthur Dacre and Amy Rolfe in "Man and Woman." She also played at the Princess Theatre with Wilson Barrett and with Sir Henry Irving in "Dante" at the Drury Lane Theatre. She was Sir Beerholm Tree's leading support in the "Resurrection."

And you saw the lovely Ellen Terry playing opposite, capturing the town, so that great poets made verses of her Juliet, and great painters made portraits of her Lady Macbeth.

A golden picture for a rainy night on Tremont-street. Yet a picture that this woman could easily conjure up merely by a few words from plays written when she was young.

Clarice Mayne, the dainty English singer, will head the bill at Shea's Theatre New Year's week. Miss Mayne will be accompanied by the versatile pianist, James Tate.

The special features for next week will be Homer B. Mason, Marguerite Keeley & Co., in "The Importance of Being Earnest," Princess Theatre.

To-night Dr. Torrington will give the "Messiah" at Massey Hall, with a chorus and orchestra of three hundred players and singers, and a quartet of professional vocalists specially selected for their adaptability and knowledge of oratorical work. To enable every lover of high class music to have an opportunity of hearing this immortal composition, there will be, as advertised, a number of rush seats sold at 25c at the doors. Reserved seats may be secured at the hall and the Bell Piano Warerooms, 146 Yonge-street, up to 5 o'clock to-day.

Al Reeves is coming to the Gayety Theatre next week with his popular "Beauty Show." There is no better known nor more attractive trade-mark in the burlesque business than this. And this season, from all accounts, the popular comedian has excelled his best previous records for supplying all that goes to make a perfectly equipped burlesque organization. In the matter of pretty girls, this organization has always excelled, and this season's semblance of beauties is said to eclipse any that has hitherto been brought together by Mr. Reeves. "Conology," the burlesque which will be presented, at His Majesty's, and created her famous title role in "Leah Kleesha." At Sir Charles Wyndham's theatre, Her greatest successes were the creation of the principal characters in Henry Arthur Jones' "Mrs. Dane's Defence" and in "The Shulamite." What should give Canadian audiences a particular pride and feeling of ownership in the career of this distinguished actress is the fact that she is the daughter of the late Captain Pocock of the royal navy, was born in Brockville, Ont., and was one of the prize pupils at Bishop Strachan's Church School for girls in Toronto.

LENA ASHWELL
Noted emotional actress, at Royal Alexandra next week.

Miss Ashwell's coming here to the Royal Alexandra Theatre next week has already occasioned the liveliest interest. Her vehicle is "Judith Zerkine," and the advance sale begins this morning. Miss Ashwell will be ably assisted by Chas. Waldron, whom Leiber & Co. have transferred from the star role in "The Fourth Estate" for the support of the famous English actress.

ELLEN TERRY'S VOICE A DELIGHT.

(From The Boston Traveler.)

Miss Ellen Terry came out upon the platform last night at Tremont Temple-out upon the same platform where, of late, politicians have raged Treatment of Skin Troubles.

Only those who have suffered from eczema, tetter, ringworm or other severe humor of the skin or scalp, can begin to realize the suffering which they cause—mental because of disfigurement, physical because of incessant itching and burning. To this repeated failure of other remedies and even the most skillful and expensive treatment soon adds the fear that a cure is impossible.

Such sufferers, therefore, may well find it incredible that the first warm bath with Cuticura Soap and gentle application of Cuticura Ointment can bring instant relief in the most distressing cases, from infancy to age, and that a single set of the is often sufficient for the treatment of skin diseases which have resisted all other methods. Yet that such is the case is shown by hundreds of unquestioned testimonials and a record of over thirty years of success throughout the world.
