Imported Suits Today, $49.50

On Sale at 10.30 a.m.—Some Half-Price and Less.

Some of them are actually less than half-price. Charming examples of the art of tailoring, they include models by such famous designers as Brandt, Maurice and Bernard, as well as clever interpretations of the mode by wellknown New York makers.

The variety ranges all the way from the plainest of plain tailored a masterpiece of intricate tailoring, with flying panels, vest and embroideries. And every model shows that very desirable finish which is given by much handwork. Gros de Londres, faille. tricotine, Poiret twill, gabardine, fine serges and covert-these are the chief materials, with the modish prevalence of navy, sand and tan. Specially noteworthy is the manner in which touches or red, rose and soft blue are skillfully applied on collars, cuffs and

Many of the skirts show floating panels and yokes of unusual shape, while quaint short, loose coats and vests divide the honors with belted coats and severely simple habit coats. On sale at 10.30 a.m. May Day special, priced at $49.50.
