was not in favor of the nomination of Mackenzie King to represent this riding, which was carried with great applause.

The business of the convention was then proceeded with and the following names were placed in nomination: G. E. Clark, Martintown; A. J. McKee, Dalhousie; H. J. Macdonald, Perth, an old Gleanerian, whose summer home is the homestead on which he was born, near Williamstown.

J. F. McKee, of Apple Hill, W. G. Chisholm, of Alexandria, J. F. McKee, of Bainsville; Simon J. MacDonald, Monckland and D. A. Ross, of Martintown. All withdrew except McKee, Kennedy, Clark and J. F. McKee. Mr. Kennedy was elected as the candidate on the first ballot, receiving 169 votes.

J. F. McKee received 28 votes, G. E. Clark four and Rev. Mr. Scott two.

On motion of Mr. Clark Mr. Kennedy's nomination was made unanimous. Mr. Kennedy, who is engaged in farming on a large scale and is a graduate of the Guelph Agricultural College, accepted the nomination. He said the enthusiasm of the meeting gave him courage for the contest, and with a united effort he believed they could and would win hands down.

Nominators D. A. Ross. The delegates from the Stormont divisions then withdrew and the nomination of a candidate for the provincial house for Glengarry was proceeded with. The following were nominated: J. F. McKee, R. J. Pattinagle, Lancaster, A. J. McKee, D. A. Ross and Duncan McCormack, Glen St. Andrew.

All retired except Ross and J. F. McKee. The vote was Ross 99, McKee 46. Mr. McKee moved that the nomination of Mr. Ross be made unanimous, which was carried with applause.

Darcy Scott, ex-chairman of the national board, who is secretary of the National Dairyman's Council, and has a small farm near Ottawa, was present at the opening of the meeting, and there were rumors he would be a candidate before the convention. His name was not mentioned until the closing of the business, when an invitation was extended to him to attend the meeting, but he had left the hall.

The grandstand will be reserved for ladies and a special enclosure will be formed for hospital patients, and men receiving decorations, with their dependents.

pendents. Uniform will be worn where at all possible. Men with decorations turning out in civies may wear ribbons over and under the uniform.

The space in front of the grandstand has been divided into six sections. On the right will be the Naval and Air Force veterans, in order, and on the left will be the veterans of all other corps, such as Engineers, Forestry, Railway and Corps Troops.

The general idea of the program is as follows: Bugle sounding one "G" will be the signal for the entry of the prince at the west gate and H.R.H. will be greeted with spontaneous and hearty cheering right along the line until he takes his position, when the guard will present arms and the band play the national anthem. After the formalities are over and the prince proceeds to depart the general officer commanding will call for three cheers which everyone will heartily participate in.

A great many men have been commended with, but if there are any who have not received tickets they will be supplied by Capt. R. A. Donald, 149 College street, who is in charge of arrangements.

All veterans are requested to proceed to the section where the division or corps with which they served is placed, and be in position by 2 o'clock sharp.

The Beaver restaurant has been established and will be conducted by soldiers, under the command of the grandstand, where everyone can have a meal in comfort.

ONE YEAR BONUS NOT SUFFICIENT

Better None at All Than Such Small Increase, Says Brockbank.

The clause in the new pension act which becomes effective on September 1, which will create most interest is that which provides for the granting of a bonus for one year to the lower ranks. A twenty per cent. increase, intended to offset the present high cost of living, is allowed for ex-private, and approximately a thirteen per cent. increase for those who held the rank of sergeant, or a corresponding rank in the naval forces.

It was pointed out that the cost of living, as measured by the high cost of food, would be added a bonus of $120, payable for one year only, making a total of $720. The totally disabled ex-private's pension of $687.50 is similarly increased to $720 by the addition of the thirteen per cent. bonus previously granted.

Out of Proportion. Secretary Brockbank of the G. W. V. does not consider the increase enough in view of the high cost of living. The increase called for was one of twenty per cent. for private, a thirteen per cent. increase for sergeants and a bonus of one year's pension.

Comrade Brockbank further stated that it had been taken up some time ago in the meetings of the G. W. V. that the minimum pension for a man who was totally disabled should be, at least $1,000.

"It would have been better to leave the matter alone entirely than to make such a small increase," further stated Comrade Brockbank, adding: "The increase only amounts to practically $8 per month, which is nothing compared to the high increase in the cost of living."

"PEG" VETERANS TRY TO REDUCE RENTS

The Winnipeg Army and Navy Veterans yesterday launched a drive against the price of rents—a movement which might well be initiated in Toronto. They have been promised the support of the Imperial veterans, and have asked the G. W. V. to assist in a movement to persuade landlords to be content with less rent.

The Army and Navy Veterans, W. A. Shepard said, will open "peg" offices in every quarter of the city, at the head office of the association, 312 Main street. Landlords will be asked to submit lists of homes, and the "peg" offices will, at the lowest possible rentals.

FIELD SECRETARY WANTED.

The resignation of Comrade H. A. Jarvis from the position of field secretary of the G. W. V. has created a vacancy in the position of field secretary of the federal committee of the federal committee of the G. W. V. A. Jarvis was a member of the G. W. V. for many years and was a very capable and energetic worker.

FLAGS PLENTIFUL.

Wholesale and retail merchants yesterday refused a statement made by Comrade James Stewart, of the G. W. V. A., to the effect that he had been unable to get flags or bunting for decorating that section of the city. Several dealers reported that there is an abundant supply of both flags and colored bunting.

MISS MALLAM IN CITY.

Miss Mallam, Canadian Red Cross visitor at the King George Hospital, London, England, is in Toronto for a short time, staying with Mrs. Wright, 237 East Gerrard street, and will be glad to see or hear from any of the old boys.

Unemployment Serious.

The Dominion command of the G. W. V. Association are urging upon the federal government to take some decisive action in an effort to remedy the unemployment situation. The veterans state that this will be the largest problem before the government and the Dominion during the coming winter, and that unless proper measures are taken in advance to cope with the situation the resultant unrest will far exceed anything that has prevailed in Canada since the beginning of the war.

VETERANS' PARADE TICKETS.

Comrade Wilkes, secretary Parkdale branch of the G. W. V. A., yesterday mailed to all members of his branch, tickets for the veterans' parade, to be held on the 27th. There has been a very active demand for these tickets from the members of the branch.

TURLEY TAKES TRIP.

W. E. Turley, provincial secretary of the G. W. V. A., has left for a trip through southern Ontario, in the interests of the association.

REPORT FAVORED THOMPSON.

Former Trustee Thompson, who is mentioned in the report of Judge Lennox, was favorably mentioned through the investigation. Thompson received a letter from Col. Denison, expressing regret that the result of the investigation did not make him trustee and thanking him for the interest shown in the investigation.

HEARST DEFENDED BY T. W. M. GARRY

what government will represent the people. Hearst Logical Successor.

Mr. McGarry referred to a speaker on Mr. Dewar's platform declaring the people had not had such a leader since the days of Hon. G. W. Ross. This reminded Mr. McGarry of the Minnie M., the West Elgin ballot box stuffing and Cap. Sullivan. He wondered what the people would think of the association of the names of the present leader with the name of a leader so far away and why the names of George Graham, N. W. Rowell and Mr. Proudfoot were passed over.

He wondered what idea it was meant replying to criticism of the manner in which Premier Hearst had been chosen. Mr. McGarry said he was chosen in the constitutional manner. He was selected by the lieutenant-governor, representing the King. He was selected by his colleagues. Why, they believed he was the logical successor of Sir James Whitney.

We have the leader of the opposition and other satellites making the statement that Premier Hearst was not selected in the proper manner as a leader. I ask you, if his selection was not made in the constitutional manner, in what way it differed from the selection of Tory leader in Canada since the death of Sir John Macdonald.

Says No Convention Needed. He went on to say that Sir John Abbott, Sir John Thompson and Sir William Hearst were all selected in the same manner by their colleagues. Continuing he said there is no call for any convention to select a leader. There are some persons, and particularly one paper in this province calling for a Conservative party convention to consider a platform. This never was a time in constitutional government when the government of the day having a majority of members on the floor of the house, and carrying on the affairs of the country was ever required, or ever will be required, to call a convention. Why, while the government is in the majority on the floor of the house, a majority of members selected by the people, just so long as that government carry on the affairs of the country, I say that the government of Ontario will continue as it is now formed with its present leader, who has so ably and successfully carried on the affairs of the province for the last four years, until such time as it decides to go to the people of Ontario to ask them what their opinion is regarding the conduct of public affairs during those years.

Hearst Will Go to Country. Sir William Hearst will go to the country and will place his record before the people who will understand and appreciate the wonderful work performed by him in the last four years. All this carping criticism will be removed by honest citizens who have the right to select the men who will run the government. The selection will be made upon the record of the government of Sir William Hearst, which, I make no doubt, will be a large majority that it has in the present house. (Applause.)

Mr. McGarry, continuing, said Premier Hearst would be selected to go to the country and at the sacrifice of his life. He was really a sick man and often attended the house when his doctor forbade.
