

Dineen's January Clearance

Clearing the way for stocktaking mean selling below cost. Getting ready for extensive importations of European skins means big need of money. Between the two you have good and sufficient reason for these extra special values:

- Ladies' $45 and $50 Fur-lined Coats reduced to $29.75
- Ladies' $35 and $40 Astrachan Jackets reduced to $25.00
- Men's $50 Fur-lined Coats, with otter collar, reduced to $35.00
- Men's $65 Coon Coats, choice skins, natural color, reduced to $50.00
- Ladies' $75 and $85 Bokhara Lamb Jackets reduced to $60.00

These reductions apply to nearly everything in the store, including ladies' novelty hats and cloth coats. Your money will earn anywhere from 25 to 40 per cent. by investing it in Furs at present prices.

Once more Zam-Buk, the great herbarial balm, has been proved vastly superior to ordinary remedies for skin disease where other preparations had signally failed. Three children in one family have been healed by it. This not only shows the power of Zam-Buk, but goes to prove how beneficial its pure herbarial ingredients are to the delicate skin of children.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

TORONTO JUNCTION.

Toronto Junction, Jan. 15.—Peter Pilkey is probably fatally hurt as a result of an accident which he sustained in the rear of the pair of houses erected this fall on Ontario-street by John Pigott of the fire department. Pilkey was removing a chicken coop on his sleigh. He had stopped to unload it and was standing in rear of a cross vehicle when the coop slipped. He could not get out of the way in time and the ton weight fell on him. He was held fast to the ground until assistance arrived. Dr. Perfect was called and ascertained that his back is broken. There are also several broken ribs and serious ruptures. He was removed to his home, on Vine-street, and at a late hour to-night he was reported to be in a critical condition.

Unionville.

One of the happiest features following the adoption of the local option measure in Markham Township is the apparent ease and satisfaction with which the question of accommodation is being met. One of the most striking instances of this is seen in the Queen's Hotel of this village. Commercial men are quick to appreciate the comforts of a home and Mr. Hemmingway has done so. The "knights of the grip" are well deserved. That travelers have given other towns the "go by" in order to make the "Queen's". Never in the history of this village has a more enviable reputation. An excellent table, cleanly, comfortable rooms and everything that makes for a "home" will all be found at the Queen's.

North Toronto.

Councillor W. J. Lawrence, chairman of the water, fire and light committee, explains that in cases where the people desire lighting of the streets, either by gas or by electricity, they would be glad to receive applications. Such street lighting, however, will have to be paid for by a frontage tax. Should residents desire electric light house illumination this would necessitate the stringing of a feed wire on Yonge-street. This expense Mr. Lawrence has just returned from a trip to Preston and Berlin. The septic tank system in Berlin is a double system. The plan is to take the surface and cellar drainage, while the other takes the sewage only. The Davisville Hockey Club was defeated on its own rink on Monday evening by the North Toronto Hockey Club by 8 to 4. A return match will be played to-night on the Eglington rink.

Bury, the present general superintendent at Winnipeg, will be promoted to the new position of general manager of western lines, while A. Price, the present superintendent of transportation on western lines, will take the place vacated by Bury.

There is also a probability that R. Macpherson, superintendent at Vancouver, will be made superintendent of transportation at Winnipeg, succeeding Price.

AN ATTRACTIVE BOOKLET.

A unique and attractive book has just been issued by the firm of Amulius Jarvis & Co., bankers and bond dealers, McKinnon Building, Toronto, which besides being entertaining as a story, will prove a very fund of information to investors. The book is entitled, "A Financial Courtship," and is aptly termed a plea for conservative investments. It explains in the clearest possible way, during the unfolding of a little romance, what money really is, and sets forth the merits and demerits of different kinds of investments, such as mortgages, notes, stocks, bonds and debentures. Being issued by a firm of such standing as Amulius Jarvis & Co., the book and the sentiments expressed therein may safely be accepted by the investor as a guide to the employment of his funds.
