It was most encouraging, and yet pathetic sometimes, to see how married men with large families were facing the situation and facing it honestly. They heard the call to duty. They felt it their duty to protect their wives and their little ones. Then there would come the awful "If." "If I were killed, a life of awful hardship for my family." They would thoughtfully turn and say to you, "Not yet." Christmas Stocks Are Wonderful and Varied

We always advocate early Christmas shopping, but our endeavor during the last few days of the holiday rush is to maintain the highest standard of efficiency among our sales and delivery forces, insuring permanent and greatest satisfaction to those who honor us with their patronage. The pre-holiday shopping hours are lengthened for five days only which we think are sufficient for the convenience of all. This is the only time in the year when exception is made to our 6 o'clock closing. Store will be open evenings, Wednesday

But more than urging early Christmas shopping, we make it possible for those who for good reasons defer their shopping until the last week, to secure the same advantages and pleasures as those whose gifts are purchased earlier. Our assortments of beautiful, novel and practical things are marvelous. Shop here today, tomorrow or any day up until Christ-
