HUSBAND AND WIFE DIE WITHIN 3 DAYS, INFLUENZA VICTIMS

Mrs. Broomfield Unaware of Mr. Broomfield's Death.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Broomfield, a middle-aged couple, have fallen victims to influenza within a week at Victoria Hospital. The husband died on Sunday last, and the sad news was withheld from his wife, owing to her critical condition, but she died last night without being informed of the death of he husband.

The case is particularly sad, in that all their relatives are in England. The couple had only recently come to Canada from England, the husband being discharged from military service. He was receiving treatment in Victoria Hospital, and in order that she might be near her husband, Mrs. Broomfield secured employment in the same institution.

Owing to the poor physical condition of the husband it was impossible for him to pull through, and influenza was followed by pneumonia. A friend came forward and undertook to defray the burial expenses of Mr. Broomfield, and provision has also been made for Mrs. Broomfield. Mr. Broomfield was buried on Thursday afternoon. Funeral arrangements for his wife have not been completed.

WOMEN HAVE MUCH OF IMPORTANCE TO DO ON COMMITTEES

Mrs. D. Williams, Mrs. R. Harris and Mrs. A. T. Edwards, the three new women members of the board of education, have been given prominent places on the various committees.

The general opinion of the other members of the board is that the women will prove a valuable acquisition. There was one suspicion of fear that the women might take the attitude that they had been elected to represent one certain class of citizens. This fear resulted from a report that one of the members said prior to her election that there were so many women teachers in the public schools that women should be on the board. That this attitude should not be taken is the general opinion of the board.

Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Harris were appointed to the committee which has charge of the work in connection with the teachers and supplies in the public schools.

Mrs. Edwards was given a place on the committee in charge of the buildings, janitors, etc.

Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Edwards will also have their part in the work in connection with the Collegiate Institute on No. 3 committee.

Mrs. Edwards was allotted a place on the audit committee, which in the course of the year passes on all accounts sent to the board.

REVIEW OF LIBRARY WORK FOR 1918 MARKED LAST MEETING OF OLD BOARD

The public library board closed up its year's business last night, a review of the work accomplished being given by Benjamin Noble, who finished his term as chairman of the board. Special reference was made to the further extension of library facilities in the city by the opening up of a branch in South London, the development of which would be a matter for the 1919 board to carry on. The general work of the library had shown a steady growth during the year, the usefulness of the reference department at the main library being particularly marked in 1918. On motion of Messrs. Gillean and Jeffery a vote of thanks was tendered the retiring chairman for his energetic and valuable services during the year, expressing also the hope that he would be reappointed as a member of the new board.

PLEADS GUILTY TO DESERTION DURING TRAINING OVERSEAS

Pte. H. A. Sipiell Got to the U. S. A.

Pte. Howard A. Sipiell, charged with desertion before a district court-martial at Wolseley Barracks today, pleaded guilty. He came from his home in Hamilton, Ohio, to enlist with the Canadian forces, and went overseas. He was sent to Seaford Camp in England, and attached to the 12th Machine Gun Company, but deserted, and was able to make his way back to Hamilton, Ohio, where he was arrested by the local sheriff.

It was not clear to the court whether the Hamilton official had been advised to look out for the wanted man by the local authorities or by Ottawa.

The court is sitting this afternoon to try two other cases, one of desertion and one of allowing a prisoner to escape from custody. The personnel of the court is as follows: President, Lieut.-Col. H. L. Milligan, D.S.O.; members, Major J. G. Wood, district casualty officer, and Lieut. G. T. Evans of the C. A. S. C. Major J. N. Weekes is acting judge advocate general.

BOARD WILL NOT SET L. AND P. S. FARES FOR NON-EXCURSION DAYS

Decides Children Under 5 Years May Travel Free.

Discussion of the amendments to the lease of the London and Port Stanley Railway occupied the time of the London and Port Stanley board at a special meeting held this morning. The lease was finally referred to the council with amendments. J. H. Saunders occupied the chair in the absence of Mayor C. R. Somerville, who was expected to have been present. H. B. Ashplant, L. S. Holmes, S. R. Manness, P. J. Watt, and W. A. Wilson were the others present.

Ald. S. R. Manness thought that the lease should specify what fares may be charged on days other than excursion days during the summer months. For the semi-weekly excursions, the fares will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children between the ages of 5 and 12 years.

In the lease as drawn by City Solicitor T. G. Meredith, all children under 12 years could be charged 25 cents. There was no mention made in the lease as to what should be charged on the other five days in the week.

The board recommended that the lease be amended to prohibit charging for children under 5 years of age.

Ald. Manness wanted a recommendation regarding the fares on other days, but this was left for the council which will have the lease to deal with.

Another Scheme.

H. B. Ashplant introduced a motion providing for the elimination of the clauses of the lease that call for increases in rental every ten years, and leaving it at $20,000 for the life of the lease. This was also passed on to the council for consideration.

Mr. Ashplant pointed out that as the G. T. R. held 20 per cent of the stock of the old L. and P. S. road it would benefit by the increase in rentals, whereas the city would be expending money on the road to make these increases possible.

SERIES OF VOCATIONAL TALKS TO BE GIVEN IN SCHOOLS OF THE CITY

Information Bureau Is To Be Established at the "Y."

To establish an information bureau at the "Y" for teachers, mentors and boys interested in vocational guidance, the vocational guidance committee, at its meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. last evening appointed Prof. W. Sherwood Fox, Fred Landon and Rev. J. R. Lavorie. There are some reports and surveys on hand now.

It is planned to conduct a series of vocational talks in the schools, and for this purpose four speakers will be selected to speak on "How to Choose a Life Work," "The Industrial Field," "The Commercial Field" and "The Professional Field." A committee will be appointed to approach the board of education to get permission to have the talks given to the boys of the Eighth Grade of the public schools, of the Collegiate Institute, and of the Industrial School. The business boys will be reached by means of a supper, which will be held for their benefit at the "Y."

After this series of talks has been completed, a vocational guidance campaign will be held. The time set for this campaign is in March. Businessmen will be asked to have personal interviews with boys who need help along this line.

Ed. H. Lance, Secretary Soldiers' Aid Commission:

Dear Sir,—The London Typographical Union wishes to co-operate with you in placing union printer-soldiers in employment. We would appreciate it very much if you would let us know when you have any printer-soldiers who wish to take up the trade again. LACK OF SUITABLE SHOES AND CLOTHING KEEPS YOUTH AT HOME

An East End resident, who has a family of eight to provide for, appeared in police court today charged with not sending his little boy to school. He explained to Deputy Magistrate Bartlett that practically the entire family had been down with the "flu," including himself. He had had a lot of bills to pay, and hoped to get the youngster a pair of shoes Saturday after he had been paid. At the present time the youngster was without shoes. That was the reason he was absent.

"I can't help it. I do the best I can," he said. "The wife and I work hard to give the kids the proper clothes, but it's hard. They tell us that the other girls at school make fun of their clothes and their shoes, and you can hardly blame them for not wanting to go to learn."

Mr. Bartlett allowed the man to go on the promise that he would send the boy on Monday to the seat of learning.

ASSAULT ON MAN OF 85 YEARS PUNISHED BY FINE OF $5 BILL

George Campbell Also Bound To Keep Peace.

"Is George Campbell in court?" inquired Deputy Magistrate P. H. Bartlett this morning.

"Here he is," shouted George, as he sprang to the front like a warrior girded for battle, his eyes flashing resentment at Charles Lilley, one time reeve of London East, and complainant in a charge of assault preferred against Campbell, who is colored.

"That there man hit me over the head with a milk bottle," shouted Mr. Campbell, pointing a trembling finger at Mr. Lilley.

"Do you see this scar on my leg," he continued, pulling one trouser leg up to the knee, thereby shocking the court and reporters. "Well, he gave it to me."

"If you don't keep quiet I will have the policeman remove you to the cells," threatened the magistrate. "You will have a chance to give your story in good time."

Tells of Assault.

Mr. Lilley told of leaving his house for the milk factory on Dundas street. He got his milk, and was returning home when Campbell thrust himself in on the scenery.

"All at once I felt something strike my nose," said Mr. Lilley. "It was a hard substance. I heard it crack a bone in my nose, and it's as sore as a boil. He wanted to smash my face last week, and I told him the devil wouldn't let him. I really think that that man is pretty near the asylum.

"I've been married 62 years, and on the verge of the next world. The Lord has been good to us, and we want to die together, as we have lived, and I don't want to be killed by this man. I want to live with my wife as long as the Lord will let me."

Mrs. Lilley stated that her husband was 85 years old, and that Campbell was continually at his heels.

More Exhibitions.

Campbell was then given a chance to give his side of the story, and did so, getting out his statements with machine gun swiftness.

"I spied him last Monday morning, and I always give him lots of room," said Campbell. "He gets all the sidewalk when he's a carryin' that bottle of milk. He can't hit me when I'm looking at him.

"Look at this mark he made on my leg when he hit me with a snow shovel," continued Campbell, again baring his shin bone to the draughts of the court room and for the benefit of Mr. Bartlett. "You done it. You're a cowardly wretch," shouted the witness, turning baleful and misty eyes on Mr. Lilley.

Mr. Bartlett, Chief Williams and Sergt. Birrell then went into executive session for about ten minutes. "I have made inquiries, and I haven't any doubt but that you assaulted Mr. Lilley," said the magistrate. "The chief says that when he came in here to lay an information his nose was all swollen up."

"I ask the chief to look at the bump on my head," interposed Mr. Campbell. The chief backed away, and refused the job.

After a few more remarks Mr. Bartlett fined Campbell $5, and bound him over in the sum of $200 to keep the peace.

WORK OF DEMOBILIZING ALL MEN WHO CAN BE SPARED IS PROGRESSING

Slowness In Recruiting Mobile Company Proves a Hindrance.

Lieut.-Col. W. J. Brown, A. A. G., stated today that plans of demobilizing all men who can be spared are being made as rapidly as possible. The requirements of the service, however, must be considered in connection with such plans, he said, and a certain number given must be retained. The extreme slowness with which the newly-authorized mobile company is getting recruits, Col. Brown continued, made it impossible to discharge men as rapidly as could be wished.

A report was current around the W. O. R. today that low-category men transferred from that unit to the C. G. R. were to be retransferred back to the W. O. R. next week for final disposal. No confirmation of this was obtainable at headquarters. In the meantime the W. O. R. orderly-room staff is proceeding systematically with the demobilization of the men who are still on harvest leave. A form is sent to each of these men to be filled out, and he can either come to the city to get discharge or return the filled-in form and secure discharge without coming to the city. It is expected that several weeks at least will elapse before all these farm-leave men will have been mustered out of the army.

REV. A. J. LEICHLITER MAY BE CALLED TO BE ADELAIDE STREET PASTOR

Although the Adelaide Street Baptist Church has been without a pastor for almost three months, the pulpit committee failing to send a call to any minister, it is thought that one will be obtained in the near future. At a meeting of the nomination of officers to be held this eevning, the matter may be fully discussed. It has been intimated that Rev. A. J. Leichliter of Dayton, Ohio, who at present is conducting evangelistic services in Toronto with Dr. J. E. Conant, a well-known American evangelist, is likely to be called.

Mr. Leichliter will come up from Toronto on Saturday, and will conduct the morning and evening services in the Adelaide Street Church on Sunday. This is the only name which has come before the deacons of the church at present.
