Fight Sam Langford Defeats Flynn

Note and Comment

President McCaffery is home again with nothing but eneering news of his Toronto ball team. Tho ne has instruct ded Kelley to keep up the hunt for anoth er catcher, infielder and outfielder, we Buffalo Fall Twe Pins Short of have a pretentious line-up at the prescent that might make anything in the Eastern League hustle. McCaffery still has hopes of landing Keeler. In fact, he has the ex-Highlander's promise to sign with Toronto should the latter hike to the minors.

There's another champion is our midst. He has just arrived in company with his own manager and must be up to the standard, according to the following notice in a recent edition of The London Cycling: A recent edition of The London Cycling:
Altho Lucien Pzalty is well known in racing circles in and around London, it is not general knowledge that he is a Greek. In fact, my first enlightenment on the subject only came about by my perusal of one of, the sport's bills at Plymouth last bank hisbiday, when I saw the words "Champion of Greece" in his letters underneath Psalty's name. A few days ago I ran across him in the city, and finding him of a communicative nature, speaking English and French in turn with great rapidity, elicited the following details of the Greeian wheelman's career:
