REGISTRATION COMPLETE BY WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Postmen Expect to Collect All the Cards With Little Delay.

Registration thru the national service cards giving Canadian officials a clear idea of the man-power of Canada, will be completed in Toronto by tomorrow night in the estimation of local postal authorities. The collections by some of the mail carriers who distributed the cards along their routes have been finished. Postmaster Rogers declared yesterday that he was satisfied with the results obtained so far in this city and had heard no complaints of ill-treatment toward the postmen.

Copies of a letter written by Archshop McNeil urging the unanimous signing of national service cards by men of Catholic faith was read in all the Roman Catholic churches Sunday. The letter explained that to be a good Catholic, a good citizen and a good pariot, a man must comply with the reresponse with the information was requested by the archbishop's statement.

Hear Lecture on Embroidery

Many of the members of the Women's Art Association and their friends enjoyed the first meeting of the Guild of Arts and Crafts held yesterday.

Miss Maclean lectured on "Ch neso Embroidery," and many fine examples of workmanship were shown on the screen. Still more intoresting, if possible, was the explanation of the symbolism found on even the most trivial pocket. piece of embroidery. By request M ss Maclean mentioned briefly some of the very interesting things to be found in WANT FRANCHISE FOR WOMEN. the Royal Ontario Museum, which she has been studying for some time. Lost Sunday The Sunday World published the photograph of a soldier which had been found on the Somme front. Yesterday it was identified as the picture of Fte. J. J. Barron. No. 141619, by Mrs. Salisbury, a friend of Pte. Barron's family. He is a member of the 21st Battalion, grenade section. Within the past week a lotter from Pte. Barron has been received in Toronto in which he stated he was well and happy. It is presumed that the photo had been dropped, probably during an engagement, and no alarm is felt as to the owner's safety.

"I had the most wonderful visit to Queen Mary's Guild last Friday. Lady Lawley took me all thru the palace and she is doing heaps of work—hospital and field comforts.

"They require sox and sox, (the supply is low caps (woollen to put over bandaged heads), long sock, the length of the leg and made of woollen goods, just like the hospital sox, but must be large. These long sock are used for slipping on the wounded on the battlefield to keep them warm. Stretcher-bearers carry them. They must be made of warm flannel and are greatly needed.
"I have met some Canadians returned from France who say keep on knitting sox. The average life of a sock is only three days. They urge women not to become tired of the work, because the war will last another year or two."

Three Men Found Guilty of Breaking Temperance Law

Convicted of selling liquor. Thomas Nugent, engineer, was fined $200 and costs or three months when he appeared in the police court yesterday. Thomas took the jail term.
