UNVEIL MEMORIAL TO HEROIC PUPILS

School Took Part in Great War.

of the school that devotion to duty was just as incumbent in civil life as it was in military life.

Miss Helen Anderson, a pupil of the school and daughter of Lieut. Anderson, Roehampton avenue, then drew on one side the large union jack which covered the tablet, when Capt. J. B. Pauline, minister of the Rosedale Presbyterian Church, who acted in the capacity of chaplain at the front, delivered an eloquent address, in which he eulogized the services of the Canadian troops, and declared that probably Vimy Ridge was the greatest battle on the war in which the Canadians took part.

Then followed the blast of bugles, which rang out the "Last Post," while the large audience stood in silence for a minute. A suitable musical selection was rendered by Miss Mary Smith, the Palmer family, and Miss Kennedy, a teacher, after which the proceedings closed with the singing of the national anthem.

The following are the names of those who were killed in action: Vincent Spaining, G. Gaynor Reid, Harold Kenty, Latham Hamlin, Luward Bach, Morden Fulton, Beverley Ball and E. Lorne Cox.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon, to Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, of John Russell, one of the oldest residents of North Toronto, whose death took place a few days ago at his home at 132 Broadway avenue. The service was performed at the house and the grave-side by Rev. W. G. Back, minister of the Eglinton Presbyterian Church, and the following were the pallbearers: Fire Chief Russell (who was first cousin to deceased), T. Avery, G. Chadwick, J. Muirhead, J. Nichol and D. Nichol. There were about 200 mourners.

NEW TORONTO WORKERS ASK INCREASED PAY

The local lodge of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners have decided, by a vote of the members, to ask for $1.10 an hour during 1921. The present scale is 90 cents an hour.

In response to a letter from the secretary of the ratepayers' association, asking that the town's roll of honor be completed, the council have instructed Clerk Millard to obtain and add to the list any names yet missing.

While working on the new additions to the John Fisher School, H. Turp of 597 Danforth avenue was struck by a derrick in the course of erection, and rendered unconscious. He suffered severe lacerations and contusions of the head, and his injuries were attended to by Dr. Evans, Roselawn avenue, after which he was conveyed to his home.

The many friends of Henry Eigle, constructor of 56 Blythwood road, who has been seriously lik for some time, will be pleased to hear that he is now able to get out again, and is making progress towards recovery.

Many complaints are heard of the dangerous conditions which exist on Keewatin avenue opposite the John Fisher School. New additions are in course of the sidewalk, which makes it extremely dangerous at night time, and several accidents have already occurred here.

The Thornhill Community Association for the community Association for cently founded by a number of local enthusiasts of that town, bids fair to do splendid for the village and neighborhood. The association have secured a large room on the ground floor of Victoria Hall which has been comfortably furished tables, and all the essentials for a modern club. To this has been added a public library of 500 books. When the library inspector, a day or two ago, visited the club rooms, he expressed the greatest pleasure at the splendid selection.
