

LABOR MOVING BRITISH AFFAIRS

Wm. Dineen Relates Incidents on Return From Interesting Trip to Europe.

First hand news of the condition of devastated France, the labor situation in Ireland is brought to the city by William Dineen, president of the W. and D. from a tour of the British Isles, France and Belgium. Mr. Dineen left the city on June 30 and since then has included in his lightning tour Belfast, Glasgow, the principal industrial cities of England, Lille, Belgium, and the main theatres of conflict in France.

England, according to Mr. Dineen, is still in the throes of an almost hysterical prosperity, which has so affected the British worker as to make the imminent period of readjustment doubly grave and difficult.

Mr. Dineen declared, adding that the amount spent by the working classes in amusement was prodigious. The laborer has further, he pointed out, asserted the dictatorial attitude which he was able to assume in war time, and works only at his pleasure—usually not more than three or four days in the week.

According to Mr. Dineen, the people of Canada are fortunately situated with regard to living conditions, as compared with the people of England. Prices locally are said to be fully 25 per cent. cheaper, and quality is also immeasurably superior.

France is running the government, the industrial works, and everything, Mr. Dineen declared, adding that the amount spent by the working classes in amusement was prodigious. The laborer has further, he pointed out, asserted the dictatorial attitude which he was able to assume in war time, and works only at his pleasure—usually not more than three or four days in the week.

Permits were issued yesterday by the city architect's department totaling $137,000. Following were some of the largest applications: The late M. Dunlop Tire Co., water tower on factory at Queen and Booth avenue, $10,000.

P. H. Lambert, addition to block of stores, 350 Danforth avenue, $3,000. M. Lindsay, alteration to building, 14 Pine Hill road, $4,000.

The Toronto delegation to the recent tidewater congress at Detroit made a very favorable impression, according to a letter from the Detroit board of commerce, read at the board of control meeting yesterday. It said, in part: "Toronto sent the second largest delegation to the tidewater congress...

Mr. Dineen referred with disappointment to his Belfast visit. He had crossed, he stated, in the hope of witnessing some of the unrest of the country, but apart from noting an unusual noise from the rioting in the Wolfe Shipyards, he had seen nothing. While recrossing next day in the boat to England, however, he had seen in the papers that city between the two oceans. Your delegation made a splendid impression, one worthy of the great city you represented.

"Mayors' Club" and the president of the association, O. E. Fleming, of Windsor, supplied one of the most interesting parts of our entire three-day program and we feel under a great obligation to them. Without their address and co-operation our program would not have been complete."

PROVINCE FINANCED 1000 NEW BUILDINGS

Good Showing is Made by Townships of York and Etobicoke.

It is estimated that over a thousand homes will be erected this summer under the provincial housing scheme, at a cost of about $4,000,000. Builders have been most active at New Toronto, Windsor, Ford City, Niagara Falls, London, Guelph and Ottawa, and also in York and Etobicoke townships. About sixty residences were erected in New Toronto at a cost of about $200,000. Most of the loans under the provincial scheme were to persons who owned their own lots. The provincial commission has no more money to loan.

GREAT BRITAIN'S VERY MUCH ALIVE

Dr. Donald, at Empire Club, Pays Tribute to the Navy.

That Great Britain is very much alive today, was the cheering message conveyed by Dr. Robert Donald, the eminent British journalist, at the banquet tendered by the Empire Club to the delegates of the Empire Press Union in the King Edward Hotel yesterday. There were about 500 guests at the feast, and Dr. Donald, as the chief guest of honor, provided them with an address to which he listened with attention and appreciation.

Dr. Donald, in the course of his address, paid tribute to the great service rendered by the British navy, without which it was impossible to win the peace. He extolled the work accomplished by Lord Kitchener, who displayed such vision as to call for the highest sense of admiration and wonder, and an audience which he told, not only of the vast numbers of men who went from the shores of the British Isles to France and other parts of the world to fight in the late gigantic struggle which started in August, 1914, but of the colossal sums she had loaned to other nations, totaling nearly two thousand million pounds sterling.

Speaking of the outlook in Europe, the speaker drew a gloomy picture. He said there were rumors of new wars, but the British soldier would not be in any new enterprise. "The chaos which reigns in Europe and Asia today is due to causes which could have been avoided," said Dr. Donald. "First, there is no provision for peace. It contained no provision for the international jealousies and strife. Its chief measure was that it ignored vast territories that had formerly been economic units, and set them at loggerheads. It was made impossible for Germany to get a start in producing, and consequently contributing towards the largest applications."

Dr. Donald said that a thoroughly bad peace and intervention in Russia were the chief causes for the anarchical condition of affairs in Europe today, not to speak of the effect of President Wilson's desertion. "After the magnificent help which the United States gave the allies, and it was vital in the end, the president withdrew his influence from the allies, and the war continued. Now, the entrance of the United States world politics would have put an end to America's isolationist policy. It is outside all the historical jealousies, suspicions and national animosities of Europe. America would not have wanted no territory. It sought no indemnity. Therefore, as an arbiter between clashing empires, the development of young democracies, the influence of America would have put an end to the settlement now as a member of the league of nations has the greatest influence in the world today."

Dr. Donald reminded the guests that Britain had provided 5,794,416 men for service in the great war, and that the British Empire had provided 2,000,000 prisoners, captured 2,500,000 wounded were over the million mark. England had produced 162,000,000 shells, and $2,111,000,000 worth of munitions. Canada's share being $4,211,000. The speaker paid high tribute to the achievements of the British navy. "It was the British navy that won the war," he said. The navy had been criticized, but "we were not able to do it under new conditions—in fact, we had to manufacture it as we went along."

Dr. Donald also said that the British Empire was financially sound, and cited some figures to show what she had done for her allies. He said that Britain had lent $568,000,000 to Russia; $214,000,000 to France; $455,000,000 to Italy; and $22,000,000 to Belgium. The latter, contrary to the others, was good, as Belgium had got down to work again, and was producing 90 per cent. of her pre-war output.

In conclusion, Dr. Donald said that the heart of the old country was sound and that there was a real progressive spirit abroad in industry. British manufacturers were busier than they had ever been before, and he considered it an enterprise. "Once get Europe working and Great Britain will go ahead in every direction. We cannot win if other nations starve. We thrive on the prosperity of other nations. We want to see the immediate and permanent flow of trade between one country and another broken down and the interchange of commodities between all peoples."

Earlier in the day the delegates of the Empire Press Union were the guests of the Toronto Board of Harbor Commissioners. They were taken for a cruise over the harbor, and then to the huge undertaking which is making such material progress. Expressions of astonishment at the scale and grandeur of the enterprise were heard on all sides. The delegates made a tour through the Baldwin plant, which impressed them considerably. A luncheon was provided for the distinguished visitors at the Royal Canadian Yacht Club. Sir Roderick Jones, chairman of Reuters, Limited, expressed the feelings of the delegates for the hospitality shown them. He considered Toronto a great industrial city and said there was every evidence of real activity. Referring to the deplorable conditions prevailing in Europe today, he said it was "like a festering sore on a man's body. It had to be healed, and Britain and her dominions would do their part in the healing."

Members of the imperial press conference left Toronto yesterday afternoon to continue their journey through the Dominion. They are to be entertained at Guelph, where they will visit the Ontario Agricultural College. From Guelph they will proceed to Sarnia, where they will embark on the Northern Navigation Company's steamship Harmonic, crossing the Great Lakes to the twin cities of Port Arthur and Fort William.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"Keep Her Smiling." Commencing next Monday evening Edward H. Robins and his Robins Players will commence saying their farewell for the present season to the many patrons of the local company. For the closing of this, their present season, Richard Walton Tully's latest and certainly most successful comedy, "Keep Her Smiling," has been selected. To have the honor of presenting this play, which is the first of the many plays belonging to Mr. Tully to be staged in a restaurant, is a simple mark of esteem that has been conferred on the hustling owner of the Robins' by that master producer, Richard Walton Tully. "Keep Her Smiling" is the comedy the late Sydney Drew was co-starring in with his wife when he was stricken with "flu." The comedy has only been seen in two cities, New York, where it enjoyed a run of ten months, and Chicago, where it competed riotous laughter for four weeks. Miss Reina Caruthers will be seen in the role created by Mrs. Sydney Drew, while opposite her Edward H. Robins will play the part of the enjoyable typical Robins comedy part created by Mr. Drew. The matinee will be as usual on Wednesday and Saturday.

McIntyre and Heath. Messrs. Lee and J. J. Shubert will present McIntyre and Heath in their new musical extravaganza, "Hello, Alexander," at the Royal Alexandra for the week of August 23. This wonderfully successful play has been by Bryan and Jean Schwartz composed Emily M. Young, the lyrics by Alfred Bran and Jean Schwartz composed the music, of which there are more than twenty numbers. An unusually large singing and step dancing chorus is a feature of the organization, and a massive and elaborate scenic production is carried.

The "Dumbells" at the Grand. The "Dumbells" show, which was originally picked from various units in the third Canadian division in France for the entertainment of the soldiers while at rest from the trenches, will again be the attraction at the Grand next week, repeating, by popular demand, their original overseas revue "Biff, Bing, Bang," which was produced in the "Dumbells" zones over half a thousand times. In spite of the fact that this clever company of returned soldiers, accented by a five weeks' engagement in the trenches, have been hundreds who missed seeing them in "Biff, Bing, Bang." Later in the season the "Dumbells" will present an entirely new show, which has been rehearsed for this season's coming tour. A great demand for seats is already reported and those wishing reservations should apply early.

Shea's Theatre. An excellent variety bill has been arranged by the management of Shea's Theatre for the week ending August 22. The bill includes the popular Victoria street amusement house. Some of the acts which will be presented are: Adelaide Bell, Myrtle, Burns and "Babe" with Lightening Girls and Newton Alexander, Casey and Warren, Friscos, Laven and Miller. The Pathé-Pollard comedies are a real treat, and the feature of the program.

At Loew's Next Week. "The Ladder of Lies," featuring Ethel Clayton and the best of the Street Theatre and Winter Garden, will be a absorbing story of a girl who averted disgrace from a man she honored and took it upon herself, and given the young woman's brilliant career, seeks to prevent Peter Gordon (Clyde Fillmore) from climbing a ladder of happiness, which is founded on deceit. The man has been married. The added film attraction presents Larry Semon, in his latest comedy, "The Stage Hand." The Regatta next week will have a fund of spicy news in illustrated form and the comedies selected are exceptionally good.

Shea's Hippodrome. C. Haddon Chambers' great stage success, "Passers-by," will be presented in its film form as a special attraction at Shea's Hippodrome next week. The film story has been produced by Commodore J. Stewart Blackton and has for its leading character the eminent actor, Herbert Rawlinson. It is an all-British production and will undoubtedly make a strong appeal to all who witness it. Six all-star vaudeville acts will complete an excellent program.

"Some Show" at Star. Give your brains an excursion, forget your troubles for a few hours and you will feel better for having done so. Barney Gerard offers "Some Show," with Tommy "Bozo" Snyder, "The Man Who Never Speaks," at the Star Theatre. The original "Bozo" is a Barney Gerard offering and Gerard has the reputation of "putting over" only good ones. His shows have been considered the best in business. Tommy Snyder, the original "Bozo," formerly "The Piano Mover," is heading "Some Show" and his name is a guarantee that laughs are numerous. "Some Show" is also said to have the prize chorus of the season, the girls having been recruited for their good looks and ability to sing and dance. There are six scenes from the Leo Lash Studios, while the costumes are by a well-known New York costumer. There is a strong supporting program.

Great Film at Strand. Big audiences are being attracted to the Strand Theatre to see the fine production, "The Dancin' Fool," which starring Wallace Reid and Bebe Daniels, is headlining the bill at that theatre all this week. The photoplay is a real "top-notch." Wallace Reid, in the role of a small town guy who tries selling portable and breakable merchandise in a big city, has a part very different from the kind in which he is usually seen, and his triumphant success in it affords remarkable evidence of the versatility of his genius for the screen. In short, the photoplay attains a standard of excellence as notable as it is rare. It is just the thing for jaded nerves these sultry days.

"Jack Straw" at the Regent. It is almost as refreshing as the trip across the lake to see and enjoy the latest Paramount-Artist production, "Jack Straw," which will be presented as the feature attraction at the Regent Theatre next week. All the world likes to laugh and "Jack Straw" has not a sad second in it. The action is set at a rapid gait. The fun is good and wholesome. The story is of the type that answers emphatically "No" to the old question, "Is romance dead?" Amid the cool surroundings which pervade at the Regent, one is sure of instant relief from the extreme heat of summer. Thus, a picture that will be enjoyed the more and coupled with the music by

VIEWS DIFFER ON TEMPERANCE ACT

Judge Orde Not Sure That Illicit Traffic is Not Due to Close Wording.

"I am not sure that the illicit traffic in liquor is not largely due to the close wording of the O. T. A.," remarked Judge Orde at Osgoode Hall yesterday, in reply to a statement made by E. G. Brennan, counsel for the attorney-general, to the effect that however harsh the act might seem, it was year by year being worked more closely, with a view to putting down illicit trading.

Judge Orde, who thought some clauses of the O. T. A. were outrageous, was hearing an application on behalf of Antonio de Angelis to quash a conviction by Magistrate Denison, who fined him $1,200 or three months on a charge that he had unlawfully sell liquor. Counsel for de Angelis declared that his client had only about fifteen minutes in which to retain counsel before the police court proceedings, and that, owing to his client's poor understanding of English, he was unable to instruct his lawyer. The result was that evidence was not brought out which should have been adduced.

After further argument judgment was reserved.

CITY WORKMEN HURT IN STREET ACCIDENT

Malcolm Henderson, aged 45, 21 Bertmont avenue, and Thos. McFee, of Brockville street, employed in the city works department, were seriously injured yesterday afternoon at the corner of King street and Sudbury avenue, when they were hit by a truck.

The two men were repairing the roadway. In a traffic jam the truck of John Murphy, of the Canadian Metals Co., struck one of the stones being used on the road, skidded, and struck the men. They were taken to the Western Hospital in the police ambulance. McFee sustained injuries to his ribs and hands and was skinned from his right shoulder to leg. Henderson received bruises and wounds on the head and back.

"My Landlady Is Always so Cross!"

"If I come home one minute after ten o'clock I find the door locked," said the Girl who works in an office all day. "And when I ring and the landlady comes you'd think I'd waked her up from her beauty sleep. Cross—I can't accept an invitation or go anywhere in the evening—hardly. I'll be old some day, perhaps, and then I won't care. But I wish I could have a little bit of fun first."

"We have lots of fun up at Willard Hall," said her friend, the stenographer. "We can have callers and plenty of music and social good times right at home if we like. And we may get late leave two nights a week if we want to go to a party or anywhere. All we have to do is say where we are going and what time we'll be back. The matron always sits up till the last one is in before she locks the door."

"You make me positively homesick," declared her friend. "My mother always used to do that."

Help us to enlarge Willard Hall to meet the call made upon it by homeless young girls in the city. Realize the social importance of caring for these beginners in the business world. Deprived by circumstances of the safe, natural advantages of home life, they are adrift in this city of homes without a home of their own.

Help us extend Willard Hall to shelter two hundred more. Be generous when our canvassers call. Willard Hall is self-supporting, but we need capital to extend.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—The first police court prosecution in Ottawa under the combines and fair prices act was introduced this morning when the firm of Provost and Allard, wholesale grocers of this city, were charged with profiteering in sugar. The hearing was adjourned for a week.

DRUGGIST COMES OUT WITH ALL THE FACTS. "We Have Never Had a Medicine in the Store That Gave Such Satisfaction," He Declares. After my personal experience with the medicine, I do not hesitate to say that Tanlac is the finest tonic system druggist's counter was the very remarkable statement made by Alphonse LeCavalier, druggist at Dr. LeDuc's drug store, 1658 St. Catherine St. East, Montreal, recently. "I had had acute indigestion for the last three years, and could find nothing to relieve me. After every meal I used to feel as though I had swallowed some hard substance. The food would form so as to nearly suffocate me and cause my heart to palpitate. I had no appetite whatever and my food seemed to have no flavor. The distress caused by indigestion was especially bad at night, and hindered me from sleeping. I was fidgety and nervous and often at 10:30 p.m. would drop off to sleep. I would have the most frightful nightmares and wake up with a start to find myself in a bath of perspiration. My complexion was very sallow, and I got so weak that I felt as though I must give up altogether and go to bed. In fact I was in a complete state of nervous prostration and exhaustion. "We never had a medicine in the store that sold like Tanlac or that gave such general satisfaction. So many people who bought it told me that they had been benefited by it that I decided to try it myself. The result exceeded all my expectations, for Tanlac did more for me than any other medicine I ever tried. I now have a splendid appetite and my digestion is perfect. I have the most refreshing sleep at night, undisturbed by nightmares. My complexion is fine and healthy. I have gained several pounds in weight, and feel as strong and strong as can be. After this I shall take special pleasure in recommending Tanlac for I now know from personal experience what it will do." Tanlac is sold in Toronto by Tamblin drug stores and by an established agency in every town.
