

Act incorporating this Company, the whole of your present Directors now retire from office. Under these circumstances your Board consider that it would be advisable for them to abstain from giving any collective opinion that could in any way tend to bias your decision on a matter so important to your interests.

J. HILLYARD CAMERON,
President.

PROVINCIAL INSURANCE CO. OF CANADA,
Toronto, August 22nd, 1859.
