

Women Who Have Votes

Some deceitful canvassers and fraudulent enumerators are telling a number of women who have soldier relatives overseas that the woman suffrage law has been changed and there is no need to bother any more about their vote.

The law has not been changed and all women who come under the following classes can vote in the coming elections:

Those of the full age of 21 years, a British subject (not of alien enemy race), and residing at the address given within the electoral district, and who is either the wife, widow, mother, sister or daughter of one of the following persons:

- 1.—Of a Canadian soldier now overseas;
- 2.—Of a Canadian soldier who has died overseas;
- 3.—Of a returned Canadian soldier;
- 4.—Of a Canadian army nurse in the forces of Canada or of Great Britain;
- 5.—Of a person who during the present war has been on active service in the Imperial Army or the British Navy;
- 6.—Of a member of the Canadian naval forces.

For the benefit of women who are entitled to have a vote there has been opened at 64 Charlotte street a Women's Central Committee, where information will be given. T.F.

PREVENT ENGLISHMEN FROM LEAVING RUSSIA

Trotsky Carrying Out Threat to Secure Release of Countrymen Interned in England.

Stockholm, Dec. 6.—Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik foreign minister, apparently is carrying out his threat to detain English subjects in Russia until the Russian prisoners in England have been released. Passengers arriving at Haparanda, Sweden, report that several Englishmen have been turned back at the Finnish border although possessed of Bolshevik passes.

The Russian commandant at the Finnish seaport of Tornio, opposite Haparanda, has committed suicide.

"This is a striking interpretation of a commentary on the attitude of mind of the old officials of Tornio," telegraphs the informant of the Associated Press.

Some pretty and impressive statistics could be piled up on the cost of the sugar shortage to the cranberry producers and dealers.—Rochester Post-Express.

THE LAW ABOUT FEMALE VOTERS

To the Editor of The Telegraph:

Sir,—In answer to your request for a statement as to the residence qualification necessary for female voters, I may say that the law is as follows:

Section 38 (a) of the present Elections Act provides that a woman must be a British subject and qualified as to age, race and residence, as required in the case of a male person in the province. This means that a woman to vote must be a British subject, at least twenty-one years of age, and must have resided in this province since the twenty-fourth day of February last.

The statement which has appeared in some literature to the effect that twelve months' residence is required, is based upon the law of another province and has absolutely no application to New Brunswick where the residence qualification is that the voter shall have resided in the province six months before the twenty-fourth day of August in any year.

I may also add that a woman must be the wife, mother, sister or daughter of a soldier who is serving or has served without Canada in the present war. If the soldier is outside of Canada it is sufficient to entitle such female relative to vote, even though the soldier may be in the United States or any other place on this side of the Atlantic. It is sufficient if he is in service.

If a soldier has died on service or has been honorably discharged, the female relatives mentioned above are equally entitled to vote.

Trusting this explanation may be of some utility,

I remain,
Yours very truly,
JOHN B. M. BAXTER.
St. John, Dec. 6, 1917.

GUARD NATIONAL FOOD INTERESTS AT TRIBUNALS

Government Arranges for Attendance of Representative of Agriculture Department—Appeal Where Necessary.

The following copy of an order-in-council has been received from Hon. F. B. Carvell:

After considering cases represented as hardships by reason of action of tribunals under Military Service Act, council has passed the following order-in-council:

His excellency the governor-general in council on recommendation of the acting minister of agriculture, and under and in virtue of the provisions of the War Measures Act, 1914, and the Military Service Act, 1917, is pleased to authorize, and doth authorize the minister of agriculture to appoint a representative of the department of agriculture in such counties or districts in any province of Canada as he may determine.

1. To attend the sitting of the tribunals in any case where, in his opinion, the tribunal has not given due weight to the urgency of maintaining our food supplies;

2. To appeal from the decision of the tribunals in any case where, in his opinion, the tribunal has not given due weight to the urgency of maintaining our food supplies;

3. To investigate and report upon appeals or application for exemption where the ground of appeal or application is that the party seeking exemption should in the national interest be retained in food production rather than enrolled in the expeditionary force.

CARVELL AND BORDEN SPEAK IN P. E. ISLAND

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Dec. 6.—Premier Borden and Hon. F. B. Carvell landed at Point Borden this morning, crossing by the car ferry Prince Edward Island. They addressed 700 people at Point Borden, 2,000 at Summerside and 3,000 in Charlottetown, speaking at two meetings in each of the two last named places. On landing at the point they were met by a delegation headed by Premier Arsenault and presided with an address.

The premier made reference to the Halifax disaster in his speech here tonight. He also dwelt on the acts of the new government, prosecution of the war and military service act.

Mr. Carvell also spoke on conscription the foremost family "friend in need" for more than a century. They know that this famous liniment with the phenomenal record of over 100 years of success is superior to any other because it was originated by a family physician—used in his private practice—because it contains more soothing, healing, pain destroying ingredients than any other, and because it is for internal as well as for external use. There is no safe substitute for this wonderful anodyne that
