THE WAR

Chief interest in the war situation still centres around the entry of Italy into the conflict. War between the members of the former Triple Alliance is inevitable, but the formal declaration is being delayed from day to day, possibly to allow the completion of arrangements for the entry of other nations also whose preparations seem to point to an intention to take active sides with the allies.

If Roumania and Bulgaria follow Italy in declaring war, the situation of Austria will be serious indeed. The reorganized Serbian army is advancing for another attack and their mettle has been proven in earlier conflicts with the bigger nation. With three more nations threatening the southern frontier it is not surprising that the German and Austrian forces are making a desperate attempt to drive back the Russians so far that their hands may be freed for the conflict with their new opponents.

The Russians have been driven back in the centre, but at tremendous cost, and in this game Russia can afford to pay the price of heavy losses much better than can her adversaries. With millions of men behind her lines, Russia can afford to give ground with every prospect of retaking it under better conditions. The despatches indicate that the advance of the Teutonic armies has been stopped and that the Russians are prepared once more to begin a fresh aggressive campaign.

On the western front the Allies have little to report, but what changes have occurred are in their favor. Successes in "trench" fighting and the capture of positions behind the enemy's lines are reported by the British commander-in-chief, and the French official communication also announces the capture of important German positions.

Reports from the Dardanelles show that the allies are making steady progress and that the capture of the straits and the downfall of Constantinople are now only matters of time.

Germany's submarine warfare has been unproductive of startling results recently, whether because they have been unsuccessful in their attempts or because the effect of the Lusitania outrage on public opinion has shown that such successes are too costly to remain to be seen.

THOUGHTS OF SUMMER

The budding trees, the green in the squares, the song of the robin, and the blue tinge in the sky suggest country pleasures, and lay hours in some nook along the river or elsewhere miles away from the dust of the city streets. Indeed it is not necessary to go far afield, since Rockwood Park affords a complete change of air and scene, within ten or fifteen minutes of the street car line. There is health and entertainment for all who have eyes to see and ears to hear, in the open spaces, the winding paths and by the shores of lake and stream. The city habit grows too much upon us. For those who, because of business or other reasons cannot go out of town for the week end or for the holiday season in midsummer, Nature has much to offer near at hand, and it is well thus early to begin to cultivate the habit of shaking off the city dust for an hour or so as often as possible and seeking that healthful change which an intelligent man or woman always finds in those portions of the earth which are not hidden by houses and where the air is always pure. There is a feeling that because of the war and city anxiety and grief it brings there will be less disposition this year than usual to seek out country pleasures, but is not Nature a consoler of those who can read her message? Especially do the children enjoy the freedom of the open road, and the pleasure should not be denied them if it is but an afternoon in Rockwood Park, or by the shore, or in the fields, or on the river, the effect upon old and young is healthful and bracing and a welcome break in the monotony of toilsome days.

Your country needs you, Young Man, in the time of stress. Answer the call and join the 58th.

Today's despatches will emphasize the eagerness of the Italian people for war. There was a wonderful demonstration in Rome last night.

For those who would have their share in the greatest war the world has ever known there are plenty of opportunities. The 58th needs recruits.

Every story of the Canadian achievements in the field of battle adds to the pride of this country, and every such story should stir the blood of every man who can shoulder a rifle.

The opening of the extension of the street railway lines to Coldbrook marks an important stage in the development of this city. The growth of the population has made expansion necessary and every addition to the transportation facilities will be followed by building operations to accommodate the overflow from the congested districts. In this case the building operations have even run ahead of the opening of the line. The amount of construction work noticeably along Rotiney avenue is a tribute to the excellent financial condition of the citizens at a time when other cities have ceased building operations.

Kitchener may have undertaken more than should be expected of any one man, but he has the confidence and support of practically the entire empire. It is safe to predict that no change will be made which will deprive the empire of his services in whatever post his great talents can be most profitably employed.

MARRED IN THE MAKING

Have you ever noticed that half the troubles of the young housewife are of her own seeking? She will take the nice little bit of cold roast beef or mutton, hash it, mince it, stew it, spend as much as two hours in turning it into a tough, colorless, over-salted or over-peppery dish. She is anxious all the time she is cooking it, most anxious of all, as the husband, upon whom she has wasted all her endeavors, tries to make light of the failure, and bites his tongue in an attempt to repress the wish that she had left the meat cold, and merely set it on a clean dish, with a sprig or two of parsley as a garnish, and a bottle of H. P. Sauce as a relish.

But young housewives are learning wisdom, hundreds and thousands of them. H. P. Sauce sells in bigger and bigger quantities every week. Cold meat is coming back to its honored place in the homely little family—and not only so, but the housewives have discovered that when the joint can no longer be served cold, H. P. takes all the responsibility of flavoring of the shoulders of the inexperienced cook.

H. P. is a rich, thick sauce, not hot, but piquant and fruitily flavored; it is made of the choicest tropical fruits and spices and pure malt vinegar. When you must hash, or mince, or stew, you see for yourself what a difference is wrought in the dish by the addition of a teaspoonful of this delicious sauce, but be sure it is H. P.

Three pairs of twins have been born in Quincy in five days. The first pair, girls, the stork left with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy, the second pair, boys, arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bonarony; and the third pair, girls, arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Constantine.

"TIZ" FOR TIRED AND SORE FEET

"TIZ" for Puffed-up, Burning, Aching, Calloused Feet and Corns.

Why go limping around with aching, puffed-up feet—feet so tired, chafed, sore and swollen you can hardly get your shoes on or off? Why don't you get a 25-cent box of "TIZ" from the drug store now and gladden your tortured feet?

"TIZ" makes your feet glow with comfort, takes down swellings and draws the soreness and misery right out of feet that chafe, smart and burn. "TIZ" enjoys the freedom of the open road, and the pleasure should not be denied them if it is but an afternoon in Rockwood Park, or by the shore, or in the fields, or on the river, the effect upon old and young is healthful and bracing and a welcome break in the monotony of toilsome days.

"A lady, whose son was about to enter a university in one of our great cities, was anxious that he should get good rooms in a first-class boarding house. Accordingly she went the rounds with him.

The landlady of one of the houses they visited said: "I will let this excellent room on the second floor at reduced rates because there is a woman next door who plays the piano continually."

"Oh," said the mother, "that would trouble my son much—he's quite deaf."

"Ah," said the landlady, "in that case I must charge him the full price."
