DRIVING HIM TO THE GRAVE

"Fruit-a-lives Saved My Life"

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 26th, 1911.
"For thirteen years, I was a terrible sufferer from the tortures of Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation and Vomiting. I could not retain much food, and this, together with the pain, and headache, was driving me to the grave. Then I used 'Fruit-a-lives' and almost at once I got relief.

"Fruit-a-lives" stopped the vomiting, relieved the Constipation, toned up the stomach, and gave me the first relief in years. I feel that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-lives,' and for the sake of other victims of Indigestion and Headaches, I will allow this statement to be published."

COUNT GOES THE PAGE

Only Thirty But is Said to Have Squandered More Than $1,000,000

Paris, Nov. 5.—Baron Clement von Rodo, German ambassador to Spain and a relative, by marriage, of the Emperor William, was arrested here recently on a charge of embezzlement. He was in the company of Mrs. Reibner, a beautiful woman, half star, better known as Yvonne d'Artois.

The baron, who is about thirty, has squandered about six million francs with his money, and although his resources were exhausted he still kept his country chateau, with eighteen acres, and a town residence in the Rue de la Paix.

Mile. Yvonne d'Artois had a great fondness for tasteless and valuable jewelry and whenever she particularly admired an article she would buy it. She was particularly fond of the prodigious, being in need of ready money, visited an antiquary with whom he had already had a deal of business.

It is said, a paper apparently showing he was soon to receive $250,000 under his grandfather's will and finally ordered $200,000 worth of furniture and tapestries to be sent to his chateau near Fontainebleau, giving promissory notes in payment.

A little later the antiquary is said to have learned that his goods had been pledged or sold, and as the bill was not met on the appointed day he lodged a charge, and when the baron was recognized in a fashionable night resort he was hurried to the lock-up, although he argued that his difficulties were purely commercial and could give ground only for a civil law suit.

He had $5,000 in bank notes upon him and Mile. Yvonne d'Artois was wearing jewels worth more than $20,000.

A BUSY DAY

Mr. Bradford Here From Amherst, Aiding Social Work

John Bradford, who arrived from Amherst this morning, went with Boys' Secretary Milligan of the Y. M. C. A. to the Centennial and Aberdeen school buildings. He reported the former as admirably suited for social centre work. At two o'clock Messrs. Bradford and Milligan, with Walter C. Allison and A. M. Belding visited the Rockwood Park playground. At three o'clock Mr. Bradford met the leaders of the Girls' Club in Union street. At four o'clock he went with a Playground Association delegation before the school board. At a quarter past six he will address the Canadian Club, and at eight o'clock will visit the Every Day Club.

Tomorrow morning at half-past nine Mr. Bradford will attend a special boys' work conference in the Y. M. C. A. At noon he will leave for Montreal to deliver two addresses before the N. B. & P. E. Island Sunday School Association on Boys' Work and Community Work.

On Nov. 18 Mr. Bradford will go to Fredericton to deliver addresses. It is possible that he may be able to give the St. John Playgrounds Association valuable aid in securing a director to give a short course of training to playground teachers this winter.

RECENT WEDDINGS

A quiet wedding took place yesterday at the residence of the officiating clergyman, when Miss Elsie May Puddington, of Hampstead, and James P. Mahood, of Saint John, were united in marriage by Rev. H. A. Cody. The happy pair will reside at Petersville.

Winchester, Ky., Nov. 5.—Fifteen prominent citizens of Breathitt county, long known as the center of Kentucky's feud district, will soon be placed on trial here on a charge of conspiracy to murder Sheriff

BISHOP'S CHARGE TO ANGLICAN SYNOD

the missionary department for 1911 was only $25,000 and on this amount there was a shortage of $3,575 in collections. This meant a failure to meet the pledge and obligations of the church, especially towards the western part of the country where the church had a great burden of work.

The bishop said that he need attempt no defence of foreign missions as such a defence would be an insult to the intelligence as well as the Christian character of his hearers. Foreign missions were every member was pledged by his baptismal vows.

Regarding the account of the deficit of the diocesan mission fund which was now more than $3,000 the bishop said that it represented the failure of many of the parishes to do their share. Fifteen parishes contributed nothing, fifteen more gave less than their apportionment and only seven gave the full amount.

He emphasized the fact that this work should not be left to the women or to individuals but that it should be the duty of the whole parish. If the people of the diocese wished to reach the minimum standard of $400,000 for the year, the system would be to have the necessary for the churches to adopt the duplex envelope system. It need not be said that the system would not work. It was those who should introduce it who would not work. A report from the treasurer showed that at the end of October in this year only two-fifths of the apportionment had been paid in.

Confirmation

With the problems of confirmation His Lordship said that he was frequently shocked to find that young people who had been confirmed a year before had not yet taken their first communion. He felt that the confirmation should not be conferred upon any who had not intended to become a communicant.

It was his duty to bring before the synod a resolution adopted by the M. S. C. calling attention to the neglect of family prayers. The subject, he said, was of great importance. There was no question but that the practice of family prayers was rapidly losing ground. He had been told that modern conditions made it difficult but where the desire existed an opportunity could be found if not in the morning then at evening.

The lack of interest shown towards church matters by the laity was partly due to the lack of subscribers to denominational papers. He believed not five per cent. of the members of the church read a church periodical. It had been suggested that a diocesan monthly could be established. This might distract from the publications but some step must be taken.

The Schools

Regarding religious instruction in the public schools His Lordship said that nothing was more important than that there be no prospect of anything being done. He was convinced, however, that the lack of religious instruction would result in a breaking down of the moral standards of the people, signs of which already might be seen. He referred to the matter to claim all responsibility for himself or his church for the failure to secure action. They were willing to make any concessions but were deflected by the unyielding attitude of members of other denominations. He recommended that the committee be discharged.

The superannuated fund, widows and orphan funds and similar funds shown for severe criticism. The advice of experts was that the funds were safe only as long as the number of clergy on the funds did not materially increase.

His Lordship referred with thankfulness to the rapidly with which repairs to the cathedral had been made. He wished to publicly thank James H. Dunn for his contributions, the dean for his unflinching work and Frank Delaney Robinson who contributed not only his services as architect but the sum of $2,000.

The bishop referred with thankfulness exactly meet the need which so often arises in every family for a medicine to open up and regulate the bowels. Not only are they effective in all cases of Constipation, but they help greatly in breaking up a Cold or La Grippe by clearing the system and purifying the blood. In the same way they relieve or cure Biliousness, indigestion, flatulence, Rheumatism and other common ailments. In the fullest sense of the words Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are a Household Remedy.

also to the improvement in the condition of Kings College and to the fact that there were now nine young men in the college from the diocese preparing for holy orders. He recommended that the funds collected here be turned over to the college authorities instead of only the interest. Rothesay Collegiate School was also in a flourishing condition, so much so that it would soon be necessary to consider the question of expansion.

On motion of Archdeacon Forsyth the bishop's charge was referred to the standing committee to report on to the synod as soon as possible.

Other Business
The rules were suspended to allow the introduction of a resolution to allow Rev. E. W. Gardiner of Newfoundland, to take his seat on the floor of the synod.

His Lordship welcomed Mr. Gardiner, saying that it would soon be his privilege to license Mr. Gardiner for work in this diocese.

The minutes of the last session were considered and approved.

His Lordship drew attention to the presence of the travelling secretary of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and suggested that he be given an opportunity to address the synod and that this privilege be extended to the secretary of the Bible Society and a delegation from the Women's Auxiliary of the diocese. On motion the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and the Bible Society were invited to address the synod.

His Lordship extended an invitation from Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robertson to the delegates for Thursday evening at their home.

The consideration of reports was then commenced, the reports being presented in printed form and on motion the reports as printed were taken as read and received.

The order of business was suspended for a motion setting aside Wednesday evening for the consideration of the reports of the standing committee on Sunday schools and the Sunday School Commission.

Parish reports, which were not printed, were submitted by the clergy and referred to a committee of the rural deans for the preparation of a summarized report.

On motion of Dean Schofield, the report on the Superannuation Fund was made the first business on Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. G. A. Kuhring gave notice of motion for the appointment of a city missionary to conduct services in the hospitals, reformatories and other public institutions.

An report of the committee on memorials to deceased members and the report of the standing committee were read and approved.

Standing Committee

The standing committee, Ven. Archdeacon secretary reported an application for the sale of the rectory of Derby, and it appearing that the sale would be for the good of the church in the parish, the sale was authorized.

Applications were also received for permission to sell lands from the corporations of the following parishes: Carleton Place, St. John, Kingsclear and Wexford. All were granted.

The committee authorized the issue of a new deed of certain lands conveyed by the corporation of Andover to Murray Grant, as it appeared that the former deed contained an incorrect description.

The committee appointed Hon. J. P. Barrell, St. John, Matthew and J. H. L. Fairweather to deal with certain glebes in Northumberland.

An application was also received from the Church Corporation of Marguerville, asking leave to sell the glebe and rectory in that parish. No action had yet been taken pending the receipt of further information.

The Executive

The executive committee reported. Archdeacon Raymond secretary, reporting several meetings.

On Nov. 10, 188 was ordered by the contingent fund on account of the for the Edgell School for Girls as was voted out of the Incorporated Fund to the Rev. C. P. Matthews.

On Jan. 9, Rev. Canon Neale reported for the Bishop's Memorial Committee that $1,200 had been received, and the money was ordered paid over to the treasurer of the synod. Mention having been made that there were no funds available for prizes for the Girls' School at Edgell, the Rev. E. B. Hoper agreed to act in collecting the same.

A letter was read from the corresponding secretary of the Women's Auxiliary in the Diocese of Fredericton stating their intention to furnish some assistance to candidates for holy orders.

The committee on the clergy, widows and orphan fund reported that they had approved the application of Rev. G. T. Spriggs for a certificate; also directed the treasurer to refund to Rev. J. W. B. Stewart the amount to which he was entitled under the canon, of the premiums paid by him to the fund while in the diocese.

On May 12, Rev. Mr. Hooper reported that he had collected $40 for prizes for the Girls' School at Edgell, and received the thanks of the committee. The Lord Bishop reported the strained circumstances of the widow of James W. Belyea, who had left a bequest to the synod for missions. The matter was referred to the board of finance to do all they legally could.

The committee on the clergy widows and orphan fund reported that they had approved the applications of Rev. R. A. Robinson and the Rev. A. W. Daniel for certificates.

The committee on the incapacitated clergy fund reported that an application from Rev. W. LeB. McKel to be placed on the fund upon his resignation of the Parish of Lancaster in September had been considered and approved. The committee further reported the death of the Rev. N. M. Hansen, who had been in receipt of a pension of $200. The treasurer was authorized to issue a check in lieu of one of the late Rev. Mr. Hansen which had been lost and also to remit the balance due on the pension to April 18, the date of decease.

J. R. Campbell and J. H. A. L. Fairweather were appointed to fix up the synod room known as the "Bishop's room," in a decent and orderly manner.

A resolution of sorrow at the loss sustained in the death of Rev. R. W. Colston was passed and a copy ordered to be sent to the widow and relatives.

On August 2, Bishop Richardson reported that his room had been well fixed up and he expressed his thanks. The synod representatives on the board of governors of King's College, were appointed to cooperate with J. Fred in the collection of funds subscribed in the diocese for King's College.

On Oct. 3 the committee on the widows and orphan fund reported that they had approved the application of Rev. A. S. Hazi for a certificate. The committee on the incapacitated clergy fund reported the death of the Rev. W. LeB. McKel on September 17. He had been on the fund since September 1. There are at present three clergy on the fund and there is a surplus income of about $500 per annum.

The committee adopted a resolution that the committee on memorials to deceased members furnish the bishop with such information as would enable His Lordship to make fitting reference in his charge to any deceased members of the synod, and that it is not desirable to continue the custom of making separate resolutions in connection with the decease of each individual member.

The committee authorized the issue of a new deed of certain lands conveyed by the corporation of Andover to Murray Grant, as it appeared that the former deed contained an incorrect description.

The committee appointed Hon. J. P. Barrell, St. John, Matthew and J. H. L. Fairweather to deal with certain glebes in Northumberland.

An application was also received from the Church Corporation of Marguerville, asking leave to sell the glebe and rectory in that parish. No action had yet been taken pending the receipt of further information.
