LET YOUR STOMACH HAVE ITS OWN WAY

Do Not Try to Drive and Force it to Work When it is Not Able or You Will Suffer All the More.

You cannot trust your stomach as some men treat a balky horse; force, drive or even starve it into doing work at which it rebels. The stomach is a patient and faithful servant and will stand much abuse and ill-treatment before it "balks," but when it does you had better go along with it and not attempt to make it work. Some people have the mistaken idea that they can make their stomachs work by starving themselves. They might cure the stomach that way, but it would take so long that they would have no use for a stomach when they got through. The sensible way out of the difficulty is to let the stomach rest if it wants to and employ a substitute to do its work.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do the work of your stomach for you and give you your food just as your stomach used to when it was well. You improve by putting your food in a glass jar with one of the tablets and sufficient water and you will see the food digested in just the same time as the digestive fluids of the stomach would do it. They will save your mind. Now, to satisfy your mind and body, take one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after eating all and what you want—and you will feel your food is being digested because you will feel no discomfort or pain in your stomach; in fact, you will feel all about having a stomach, just as you did when you were a healthy boy or girl.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are in a natural way because they contain only the natural elements of the gastric juices and other digestive fluids of the stomach. It makes no difference what condition the stomach is in, they go right ahead of their own accord and do their work. They know their business and surrounding conditions do not influence them in the least. They thus relieve the weak stomach of all its burdens and give it its much-needed rest and permit it to become strong and healthy.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box. They are so well known and their popularity is so great that a druggist would as soon think of being out of alcohol or quinine as of them. In fact, physicians are prescribing them all over the land, and if your own doctor is real honest with you, he will tell you frankly that there is nothing on earth so good for dyspepsia as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

The Fairville Firemen

The upper and entertainment given by the Fairville firemen in the temperance hall, Fairville, last evening, was largely attended. Tastefully decorated, the different booths, which were in charge of a large number of ladies, were well patronized, as were also the various games. The prize winners during the evening were: Standing bear board, Fred Joyce, prize, a picture; standing bear board for ladies, Mrs. McCrackin, one dozen napkins; bouquet in the hole, George Raynes, umbrella; bowling alley, Fred Linton, coat sweater; air gun, Charles Williams, alarm clock. The following interesting musical and literary programme was carried out: Diet, Misses Stevens and Goss; solo, Miss Goss; Dr. F. X. Morris; ladies' club singing, Miss Goss; solo, Fred Joyce, H. P. Allingham presided. The funds realized are to go towards purchasing uniforms for the firemen.

Miss Eda Ek of Brockton, thinks she has the shortest name in the world.

SPOKANE ADOPTS GOVERNMENT BY COMMISSION; THE PLAN

New City Charter Under the New Procedure—Salaries of Commissioners Set at $5,000 a Year—Thirty-Eight Sections in Charter Supply the Machinery

(Lethbridge Courier.) The city of Spokane is about to adopt the commission plan of government. Spokane is a much larger city than Lethbridge, consequently it would require more commissioners and the commissioners perhaps would be entitled to larger salaries than would be the case should Lethbridge decide to adopt the principles of the plan adopted by Spokane.

For a year Spokane has been wrestling with the question. First of all, a committee of representative citizens was appointed by the mayor. For several months all the information that was possible as to the practical working out of the principles of commission government. It secured all the information that was possible as to the practical working out of the principles of commission government. It secured all the information that was possible as to the practical working out of the principles of commission government.

The next step was the election by the freeholders of a committee of fifteen to draft the new city charter, embodying the commission form of government. In spite of an ingenious attempt of corporations and the "old guard" to defeat the commission plan by nominating a number of prominent men ostensibly in favor of it, but as shown at the final moment, really in opposition to it, and thus to split the vote of the freeholders, the "people's" committee, consisting of men who all along have been identified with the commission plan of government and including a strong representation of labor men, was overwhelmingly elected. For the last five weeks they have been holding nightly meetings. On each night a special subject was down for discussion. Representatives of corporations and every other walk of life were invited to attend and take part in these discussions and did so. The result is that the committee has adopted sections providing for the initiative, referendum and public referendum system for voting, division of the city business into five departments, election of five commissioners, large, their department not designated prior to election, elections to be held every two years, and at each election one commissioner to be elected by the city, one by the business community, one by the labor community, one by the professional community, and one by the general community.

The following is a summary of the final draft of the new city charter adopted by this committee of freeholders Friday.

The main provisions adopted as the final report of the committee were as follows: Sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 define the name, boundaries, powers rights and liabilities of the city, which are those usually exercised by a city of the first class, but under the direct and control of five commissioners.

Section 5—Five commissioners to be elected at large, offices not designated, terms to commence on first working day of January following their election. To serve four years. Elections every two years, and at each alternate election two and three commissioners, respectively, to be elected.

Section 6—Commissioners to be citizens of the United States and of the state of Washington, and residents for five years preceding election. To give all their time in business hours to the city's business.

Section 7—Salaries, $5,000 each. Section 8—Vacancies to occur from failure to qualify within ten days after election, death, resignation, removal from office, continuous absence from the city for more than six months, conviction for felony or for incompetency. Council has power to appoint for unexpired term.

Section 9—President and vice-president to be elected at the first meeting of council, former to be mayor.

Section 10—Public meetings of council, one legislative meeting to be held every week, and daily business meetings.

Section 11—Each commissioner has a vote. Mayor has no vote.

Section 12—All legislation and appropriations by ordinance in writing.

Section 13—But one subject in ordinance unless for appropriations.

Section 14—Enacting clause.

Section 15—Three public readings of ordinance. Three days to elapse between introduction and final passage. Ordinance covering sums in excess of $1,000 to remain on file a week before passage except in emergency. Later to be passed by four-fifths vote.

Section 16—Ordinances to be signed by council.

Section 17—Ordinances to be recorded and attested by city clerk.

Section 18—Ordinances to be attested by mayor and two councilmen and attested by city clerk.

Section 19—Ordinances effective after 30 days.

Section 20—Electors' ordinances effective at time fixed therein, or if not designated at date of adoption.

Section 21—Amendments and repeals by ordinance.

Section 22—Departments as follows: Finance, Public safety, Public utilities, Distribution to be made by city council.

Section 23—Commissioners to have charge of departments, but may be changed from one to another or given more than one.

Section 24—Appointment of officer by council. Recommended.

Section 25—Commissioners have power to appoint and remove assistants and employ in their own departments, Council to create or discontinue offices as may be necessary.

Section 26—Compensation to be fixed by council.

Section 27—Duties of city clerk to keep records of proceedings, all matters noted by council, certify all accounts, keep and seal and affix same to all documents when authorized.

Section 28—City engineer to be of practical experience of five years preceding appointment.

Section 29—Corporation council to have practiced law in state of Washington for five years next preceding appointment.

Section 30—Duties of corporation council to be legal adviser to the city, conduct cases not in charge of special counsel, keep docket and record of all cases and deliver same to successor.

Section 31—Corporation council may employ one or more assistants.

Section 32—City council may employ special counsel.

Section 33—Oath of officers provided to support constitution of United States and state of Washington and properly perform duties.

Section 34—Commissioners to furnish bonds of $25,000 not specified as surety bonds; other officers to be bonded as determined by the city council. Reasonable premiums to be paid on surety bonds by city. Elective and appointive officers bonds to be approved by the council. All other bonds by mayor and forms of all other bonds approved by corporation council.

Section 35—Officers and employees not to be interested in contracts or accept pass frank, free ticket, free service or other favor from public service corporations, violations to disqualify, and offender to be removed from office.

Section 36—Contracts and documents to be executed by mayor or any councilman designated by council.

Section 37—Official gazette to be published weekly by city clerk containing a summary of city council proceedings, detailed statements of all receipts and disbursements, classified by subdivisions, and other city matter to be designated by council, no other matter to be included.

Section 38—Fiscal year and calendar year to be the same. Annual audit of city's books by outside experts, provided for, results to be published in official gazette.

LOCK-UP FOR CAMPBELLTON. Campbellton has two policemen, but no lock-up. The deficiency is being remedied and a large crew of men are employed erecting one on the old council room site.

"They say her wedding beggars description."

"Oh more than that!"

"Indeed!"

"Yes, it beggars her father,"—Betsy Horion.

HELL IS CERTAIN SAYS DR. TORREY

Evangelist's Sermon in Queen's Rink Heard By Gathering That Crowded the Building

The Queen's Rink was packed last night by an attentive audience who listened to Dr. Torrey's first sermon on Hell. There could be no doubt of the immense impression caused by the words and arguments of the preacher. As usual the musical part of the service was of such a nature as to excite deep feeling. The tremendous success that has so far attended these meetings is very gratifying to those in charge.

"And if thy right eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee; for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body be cast into hell."—Matt. 18:9.

My subject tonight is Hell; its certainty, its location, its nature, and how to escape it. If I were to choose my own subject to preach upon, I certainly would never choose this. I always speak upon it with reluctance and pain. It is an awful subject, but a minister of God has no right to choose his own subjects. He must go to God for them, and I am confident that God wishes me to speak upon this awful subject tonight. I wish that I could believe that there was no hell, that I, I wish that I could believe that all men would come to repentance and accept Christ, and that therefore hell should be unnecessary. Of course, if men will persist in sin, and persist in the rejection of Christ, God's glorious Son, I cannot but recognize that it is right that there should be a hell, and that hell should continue as long as men persist in their sin and rejection of Christ.

Dr. Torrey divided his subject into three heads, the certainty of hell, the character of hell and how to escape hell, and dealt forcefully with each in turn.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

Not One Woman In Twenty Has a Strong Back.

The doctor says that nine times out of ten, a woman's back is weak. Mrs. A. H. Hutcheon, Jr., McCreary, Man., writes: "Two years ago last spring I had a very severe pain in the small of my back. When I would rise it seemed as if my back would break. My kidneys were very badly out of order, and I would have to get up three or four times during the night. I took one box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they effected a cure."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box or 3 for $1.25, at dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by the T. M. M. Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

If ordering direct specify "Doan's."

When the blood isn't properly filtered the poisons that ought to be carried off by the kidneys are sent back through the system, and it's hardly to be wondered that backaches and lame backs come to make life miserable.

Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles. They begin by expelling all the poisonous matter from the kidneys, and then heal the delicate membranes and make their action regular and natural.

AVOID ARREST OF YOUTH WHERE IT IS POSSIBLE

Prison Congress Adopts Platform for Dealing With Juvenile Delinquents

Interest attaches to the rules adopted by the recent International Prison Congress at Washington for the treatment of juvenile delinquents. The platform laid down by the congress is as follows: Young delinquents, should not be subjected to the penal procedure now applied to adults.

The principles that should guide the procedure applied to young delinquents are as follows: Those who are entrusted with the cognizance of the cases of young delinquents should be primarily chosen for their ability to understand and sympathize with children, and should have some special knowledge of the social and psychological sciences.

They should have the assistance of probation officers to make preliminary examination in each case and to watch over and help these put on probation. There should be made in connection with young delinquents such examinations as will contribute to the fund of information on juvenile delinquency and the results should be used whenever practicable to help in the disposition of the case. Medical examinations should be made only by physicians who have some special knowledge of the social and psychological sciences. The personal information obtained in these examinations shall not be made public.

Wherever possible in the case of young delinquents arrest should be avoided by bringing them before the authorities and orders for arrest should be issued only in exceptional cases.

When necessary to detain young delinquents the detention should not be in quarters used for adults.

In those countries where a court is entrusted with the cognizance of the cases of young delinquents, such cases should never be heard at the same session with cases of adults, and it should be the tendency in the trial of juveniles to proceed as far as possible by way of conference for the good of the child instead of contest and over the child.

Those who are entrusted with the cognizance of the cases of young delinquents should also have the cognizance of the measures needed in the interest of abandoned and maltreated children.

There was a very large attendance last night in the school room of Trinity church at the musical entertainment directed by James S. Ford, and that it was successful is evidenced from the hearty congratulations which were showered upon him and those who participated in the excellent programme.

Those taking part were Robert Seelye, Ernest Reynolds, A. C. Ritchie, J. A. Pankhurst, and Miss Louise Knight. All were for women.

In the attack on the British house of commons by suffragettes at the opening of parliament, the women were led by Mrs. Pankhurst, a prominent worker for votes well received, and were greeted with hearty applause. The singing of the Trinity choir was excellent, and gave convincing proof of ability and training.
