SOME GERMAN CARTOONS.

The Uik, a German paper issued by the proprietors of the Tageblatt, recently published a cartoon entitled Sending the Innocents to Heaven. The cartoon represented Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Kitchener in horns, hoofs and glaring red, capturing and throwing sweet little Boer cherubs into a huge caldron. Another picture shows King Edward VII preparing for his coronation by washing his crown in Boer blood. These are but samples of the attacks that have been made in the German press on the British conduct of the war in South Africa. It would be impossible for them to be more brutally and shamefully untrue than they are. Seemingly all the animus stored up in the German mind against Britain is now finding vent in these and similar attacks. Count Von Buelow's speech was a sample of the same thing in a different form. From the very outbreak of the war most of the continental powers have done their best to hamper the empire in its great struggle. They have openly rejoiced at reverses to British arms, and have repeatedly falsified returns. Now that these things have little or no effect, and the Boer power is practically crushed, resort is made to these libellous cartoons. They, of course, bring about the result intended, by inflaming the minds of the people against all things British. In them the army of the empire is made up of fiends from the pit, while the Boers appear to be but little lower than the angels.

TO FIND THE LOST.

Postal service notices are posted around the city, printed in English and French. The use of the latter language here is probably in deference to the hundreds of Frenchmen discovered here by the census takers. It may, however, possibly be a bait to bring them out of the secure retirement which they sought immediately after their fortunate discovery by the diligent numbers of the people. Should this inducement lure them forth something should immediately be done to bring them into public view. While it is a good and proper thing for the city to devote its energies and money to obtain the seven thousand workmen of the C. P. R. car shops, it should be remembered that right here concealed in our midst are many hundreds of Frenchmen, found for a brief season by the census takers, who might by careful search be re-discovered and take their places as good citizens of St. John. Something certainly should be done in the matter.
It does not speak well for the city that she has allowed hundreds of her population to be spirited away and in ten months no effort has been made to secure a trace of them. There may be a gruesome mystery about the matter that should be looked into. At all events, the detective force should be detailed to watch these postal service notices. By so doing the missing inhabitants may at last be found.

An interesting experiment is again about to be made with the ships of the Channel squadron. They are to be painted in all the neutral tints that can be devised. The experiment has been tried before, but without much success, as it was found that visibility was affected by atmospheric conditions as well as by colors. The advantage that would accrue to the fleet, whose ships possessed greater temporary invisibility is too great to allow the idea to be put to one side because of previous unsuccessful attempts.

While the Irish Nationalist delegation is on its American tour Sir Wilfrid should get ready his re-assurances of sympathy with the cause. Some good Canadian bank notes, would in the present straitened condition of the party's finances, be more warmly welcomed.

When the Telegraph speaks of the cares bestowed upon the public works of this city during the last few years, it probably refers to the $160,000 car warmer, down at the Union depot.

ST. ANDREWS MAN DROWNED.

BOSTON, Feb. 4.—The Danish str.
Antwerpen, Capt. Andreasen, which arrived here today from Copenhagen via Stornoway, brought seven men of the crew of the Gloucester fishing sch.

A. S. Whelan, whom she rescued off Scuterie on Jan. 31. They include Capt. Wm. B. Larkin, Mate Joseph McLellan, Steward Edward Williams and Seamen George Frase, John Shepard, John Ross and Martin Sisco.
One of the schooner's crew, Melville Smith, was washed overboard and lost Jan. 27, while on the bowsprit during the gale. He was 39 years of age and belonged in St. Andrews, N. B.

AN OIL DEAL.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Feb. 5.—The papers have been placed on file here in which the Hogg-Swayne syndicate transfers to an English company to be formed seven and one-eighth acres of land in the proved oil field for a consideration of $150,000 in cash and $200,- 000 in stock, the proposed capital stock of the company to be $1,500,000.
It is stipulated in the deed that the projected company is to be organized in Great Britain.

GREAT BUILDING ACTIVITY.

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—The action of the city council in fixing the base off tail buildings is expected to mark the beginning of the period of the greatest building activity in the history of Chicago. Structures to cost $11,- 238,000 have been planned for immediate construction, and $4,000,000 is to be put into other big down town buildings in the near future.

HEAVY SNOW STORM.

DALLAS, Tex., Feb. 5.—A snow storm in North Texas and heavy rains in Southern Texas are reported. The fall of snow was very heavy. At Santa Anna there was a blizzard with 3-12 inches of snow. The snow will be of great benefit to wheat crop, which was almost a total failure in this state last year.

WANT THE C. P. R. WORKS.

The Board of Trade Will Do Everything in its Power to Bring Them Here.

The regular meeting of the Board of Trade was held last night. Secretary Allison read the proceedings of the council during the past month, stating that Thos. Gorman, E. C. Elkin, George Robertson, Mrs. A. Drury, F. A. Dykeman, and W. H. Barnaby had been appointed additional members of the council. Petitions had been sent to the dominion government asking that a steam whistle or fog alarm be placed near Negro Head, that the Beacon light be replaced by a better and more modern structure and that the dredging of the harbor be proceeded with without delay.

A committee had been appointed to consider the question of standard time.
The committee has taken the subject into consideration and has asked for further time to report.

The president stated that he had written to Pres. Shaughnessy of the C. P. R. regarding the location of the car works at St. John. W. H. Thorne thought the only action the board could take would be to endorse the action of the mayor. He considered St. John's chances against Montreal to be slight.
If the city wished to offer inducements to the C. P. R. the only action it could take would be to lay out land and offer the company a free grant. He moved a resolution stating that: "This board has heard with much satisfaction of the course taken by the mayor in bringing to the notice of the president of the C. P. R. the suitability of St. John as a site for their proposed works, and pledged itself to assist in the establishment of such by every means in its power."

Remarks supporting the resolution were made by George Robertson, T. H.
Estabrooks, Aid. Macrae, F. A. Dykeman and W. Frank Hatheway, and the resolution carried unanimously.

Ald. Macrae brought up the matter of the proposed act to grant the Bell Telephone Co. certain rights regarding the placing of poles and wires throughout the dominion. He protested against such legislation and moved that the council be requested to make such representations as they thought best to the government against the company getting any rights in any municipality without the consent of that municipality. This was seconded by T. H. Estabrooks and passed.

W. L. Waring was elected to membership in the board.

THE NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY.

The regular monthly meeting of the Natural History Society was held in the rooms last evening, the president, Hon. J. V. Ellis, in the chair. The following named ladies were elected by the council associate members: Miss Jennie C. Dawson and Miss M. A. Robbins. Dr. Matthews presented charts of the gold fields in Guiana, from Lt.
Col. Markham; a cabinet of minerals, fossils and rocks collected by the late Dr. Gesner, and believed to be his earliest collection, made during the first years of his survey; the scale of a fish (trout), presented by Mrs. E.
M. Whitney; a number of donations to the library, consisting principally of exchanges from other societies, were received.

The paper of the evening was read by A. Gordon Leavitt. It presented the result, in part, of last season's observations on birds, mingled with many useful remarks on their good habits, mode of life, etc. The paper was attentively listened to and contained much that was original and instructive to the interested audience. Remarks on the paper were made by J. W.
Banks, C. F. B. Rowe, Dr. G. F. Matthews. A hearty vote of thanks moved by G. U. Hay, seconded by J.
W. Banks, was given the lecturer.

A MEMORIAL.

The Chipman Hospital at St.
Stephen Formally Opened.

A Noble Institution—Notable Addresses—Beds Endowed—A Handsome Check—The Premier Present.

Flags were flying in St. Stephen yesterday in honor of the official opening of the Chipman Memorial Hospital, presented to Charlotte county by the children of the late Z. Chipman and Mrs. Chipman.

The idea of the gift originated with Lady Tilley, and was cordially adopted by her brother, J. D. Chipman, and their sisters. At first it was intended only to give the house and grounds, but later the family decided to equip it as well. This did not prevent others from sharing in the work, however, and beds have been endowed by the towns of Calais and St. Andrews. The ladies of St. George and Penfield furnished a private woman's ward, and E. G. Russell, manager of the I. C. R., endowed a private room, the Madana Russell room, in memory of his mother.
Mr. Russell is a native of Charlotte county. The operating room was equipped by the Ladies' Hospital Aid Society.

The members of the Chipman family made all the necessary alterations in the building, which do not in any way rob it of its home-like aspect, although the equipment is in every respect that of a model hospital. They also furnished sixteen beds, making twenty in all that are now ready for patients.

The members of the Chipman family who have made this magnificent gift are Lady Tilley, Mrs. W. H. Howland of London, England, and Mrs.
Toller, wife of Lieut. Col. Toller of Ottawa.

As there was no single room of very large size in the building the invitations to the formal opening were necessarily restricted, but a notable company had gathered within its walls when the opening exercises began at 3 p. m. Prior to the opening Lady Tilley and J. D. Chipman entered at dinner at the Windsor a number of specially invited guests from St. John, St. Andrews and elsewhere. The St.
John people present were Mrs. J. V.
Ellis, Mrs. Robert Thomson, Mrs. J.
McLellan, Mrs. Murray MacLaren, Mrs. H. C. Tilley, Miss Ada Bayard, Miss Berryman, H. C. Tilley, L. P. D.
Tilley, R. O'Brien and a Star representative.

G. T. Whitlock had charge of the arrangements at the hospital, where very interesting exercises were carried out.
Rev. O. S. Newnam read the 91st Psalm. The dedicatory prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Read. A sacred solo was sung by Mrs. Geo. J. Clarke. Lady Tilley read a very interesting address, stating what had been done by the family, and expressing her grateful acknowledgements to E. G. Russell, Dr. Harte of Philadelphia, Edward Maxwell, the C. P. R. architect, and to the people of Charlotte county and the ladies of Calais, who had so cordially aided in the work. The county council had granted $400, and grants were also to be made by St. Stephen and Milltown, and she hoped by the legislature of the province. After a trio by Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. F. J. Muir and Miss Halliday, Premier Tweedie delivered an address, pledging as far as he could the aid of the government.
J. D. Chipman spoke with strong emotion, referring to the past associations of the old home, and presented the deed of gift to Hon. Geo. F. Hill, president of the board of management.
Hon. Mr. Hill made a graceful reply.
Mayor F. M. Murchie spoke on behalf of St. Stephen, and presented a check for $1,000 from the citizens. Mayor F.
C. Murchie spoke on behalf of Mil-town, and G. W. Ganong, M. P., on behalf of the county at large. All the speakers paid a warm tribute to the zealous labors of Lady Tilley, as well as to the great generosity of the whole family. A quartette was sung by Mrs.
Muir, Mrs. Halliday, Fred. Keys and W. S. Pool. Judge Stevens then spoke, and Premier Tweedie formally declared the hospital open. The guests who had to leave by the afternoon trains were provided with refreshments in the hospital dining room. Before leaving all visited the various wards and rooms and expressed both surprise and admiration at the completeness of the equipment down to the most minute detail.

The matron of the hospital is Miss Ogilvy, a graduate of St. John hospital, and the second nurse is Miss Price of Havelock.

Strong boards of directors, trustees and management have been appointed.
Lady Tilley is at the head of the first, J. D. Chipman of the second, and Hon.
Geo. F. Hill of the third.
H. C. Tilley and Mrs. Tilley, L. P.
D. Tilley and Mrs. Chipman assisted Lady Tilley and J. D. Chipman in looking after the comfort of all the guests yesterday.

At the close of her address Lady Tilley unveiled a marble tablet on the wall, bearing the following inscription:
"The Chipman Memorial Hospital is given by the children in loving memory of their father and mother, also the dear ones of the family who have entered into rest."

JUDGE STEVENS' ADDRESS.
Standing here and beholding the transformation in the old home of many fond associations, a flood of memories surround my heart as I recall the times when a revered father and mother dwelt within these walls with a united and loving family in whose union and affection was illustrated what a home was and should be.
I recall to mind the memory of the parents whose generous and genial disposition ever displayed those social qualities which leave a community for good.

I recall the happy times when within these precincts were often heard the sounds of innocent revelry and mirth; I recall to vision the happy bridal parties within these walls when the loved daughters were captured from the old nest and taken to other homes with the blessing of the old home upon their heads, and its hallowed memories ever prompting a return to the old home of affection.

The well remembered father has long since been taken to another home, and when the dear surviving parent, who after many years of lonely widowhood, was called away, it must have been an anxious thought to the survivors as to what was to be done with the stately mansion and the hallowed place of so many fond associations. To have it pass into stranger's hands must have been a thought hard to bear—for the children to pass the door and have no welcome for them now, would have wounded the heart, and to have "Ichabod" written upon its walls—for the glory of the old home would be to them departed.

It was a noble and happy thought to preserve the old home in a manner still as theirs, and consecrate it to one of the noblest uses that humanity could suggest, where within its sheltering walls those guests would be welcomed from whose heart and life would be uttered the voice of praise and gratitude to those who in the spirit of the Divine philanthropist had compassion on the suffering.

And what shall we say of the considerate and charitable spirit that animated the heirs of the departed parents in donating the magnificent mansion to its present purpose, and furnishing it with all the needed equipments and appliances for its successful operation, fitting it up in so perfected a manner as to rival in its excellency—according to its extent—the best hospitals anywhere to be found.

And whilst we desire to give honor to whom honor is due, it is most fitting to mention in an especial manner the untiring and successful efforts of that noble lady, who on more than one occasion has exhibited the actual example—not only talking of what might be done, but of actually doing it, and by the inspiration of a loving nature prompted others to engage in the philanthropic work as her willing assistants, to whom all praise is due, so that the generosity of many has been stimulated and liberal endowments and donations towards the maintenance of the institution have been made which will redound to the welfare of the donors and who will be sharers in the noble undertaking.

A most eloquent work has been consummated, and a memorial to the Chipman name established. More durable than monuments of marble or of brass, and more significant than such as are erected in memory of heroic deeds on battle field, or in honor of the exploits of statesmen, and in the bright example shown, may we hope there will be an incentive given to others who have the means and ability and as opportunity is offered, to go and do likewise.
