

THE STAR, ST JOHN, N B. FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1909

SIX

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

•

SELLING THE ARDENT

BUSINESS CARDS.

	to sow the city with rews of the world and the old Father stooped, labored at	The fate of the race is in our hands! We shall take Nature and use her as	the trial of the cases.	mother's palace. The Prince Consort	be two barrels of whiskey and one of	journment. The men wanted are Dil-	Today to Lay Matter
			At the same time the demand of the government for punitive damage was	happening to be coming from the op-	gin. Each barrer barter bort a bohn	a truckman. They had been regularly	Belore Laurier them on the "express," locked up his closet and dragged his load toward the		reduced to $250,000 at its own request.	the Red Cross Society, of which he	Lindow. The name of George S. 1e	subpoenaed, but failed to get here.	Delore Laurier had just been appointed president. He
			A SURE THING	was acompanied by a little dog (a daschand), who no sooner perceived	HUSBAND RAN AWAY WHILE	post office, December 26, was fined $500	OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 4.—Representa- tives of the Veterans of '66 in all parts
1.14	pulling his express wagon, his prophet's	kindly voice, "says she's a materialist!	Suce to Wie When People Know It	the Queen that he ran toward her,	HUSDAND HAN ANAT WHEE	Portland jail.	of Canada will march to Parliament
	a stranger and the stranger atter all	why, her lucation is runny.		barking with joy and jumping around her, in high glee. The Queen and	STRANGER ABDUCTED WIFE	Sanford 'Thompson and Chas. Fortier	Hill tomorrow from City Hall to lay before Sir Wilfrid Laurier and mem-
	The Mother, after preparing the food for her children, went back to the			Prince chatted for awhile together, and		and Thompson was fined $100 and For-	bers of the government a memorial
			The marvelous growth of the sale of	then the Prince bowed low and left	/	tier was fined $100 and given thirty	setting forth their claims to land
			Postum is principally due to the fact that when a man or woman learns	her to enter the Red Cross Building. He called his dog, but "Dachs" would	Claimed He Was Her Guardian—She Has	days in the Portland pail. Charles E Barker of New York.	grants from the Dominion similar to those granted to the South African little Esther meaned feverishly and	throws out his vision into caretablat	that tea or coffee is hurting them and	not loove his roval mistress and re-		against whom a secret indictment was	veterans. A number of veterans from
	had much auto to dicta see	- it is a state morely about	that there's relief by changing to POS-	distad all efforts of the footman who	Applied to the Police for	found on a charge of alleging the con-	various Ontario and Quebec points ar-
	"IT said the Johanna!" said the	that! There's no sentiment in it.		him back to his master. At last, the	Protection.	in court tomorrow to answer to the	rived in the city today and completed arrangements for presenting the me-
	busy Mother. She was already hard at work doing hand-sewing. She did not	"Just work?" said the spade-bearded	"Then sir on eight years I have suf-	Queen horall ordered him to go point-		indictment. Barker is alleged to have	morial tomorrow.
	dure to do machne work until Jane	specifien, frowning moound.	to day thematil I man nothing but skin	ing in the direction of the Prince, who		conducted a premium gold bond asso- ciation and that he offered to patrons and John were up.	Miss Grabo, you're a dreamer into a	and honog I tried nearly every pat-	mont But "Dachs" set a had exam-	NEWMARKET, N.H., Feb. 4When	in Hallowell, premium bonds to pur-	can Veterans' Association in Canada the two little girls got then own	cocked hat, though, when you get in-	ent medicine for stomach troubles, and several physicians, but without re-	ple of disobedience to her Majesty's	told tonight that his girl-wife had		waited on Sir Frederick Borden to pre-
				tail contentedly, remaining as close to	sought the protection of the police in	and the holder of the lucky number to receive a chair.	fer the same request made some time ago before the Minister of the Interior faint at the Mother's feet. The Moth- er cried out, and picked up the frail	rheumatism and grio and tonsilitis:	"Two years ago, I was nervous and	the Queen as he could and ignoring	mapper Lorenz d'Aboru, a cotton mill		that the provisions of the South Afa and blogs bories and but the	And you it cause the manner of the	weak when my last boy came, and couldn't nurse him. I had an attack	the royal command. At last the	worker declared that it was true that	SCHOONER WRECKED	rican volunteer bounty, the act passed last session, be extended to all veterchild on the bed. She moaned as she applied water to the face, until Esth-	She laughed.	of bilious colic one day and I could		another man had compelled his wife by threat and the display of a revolver		ans of the campaign now citizens of er looked up.	"We'll see!" she cried, "we'll see! I	test athing but coffee I told my	footman after an exciting chase and	to leave her home a few days ago. d'-	ON CAFE LOOKOUT	Canada. The Minister of Militia prom-
	"I gat up," cried Esther, struggling.	won't be tied to money-grubbing, not	husband I would not drink any more coffee as I believed it caused my	Does not this little incident show	Aboru said he would be glad to have		ised that the request would be care- fully considered by the government.
	"I must work, I get up. I'm all right!" And the brave little body managed	-1: ·	troubles.	how unaffectedly and fearlessly the	the young woman come back. The d'Aborus are Portufuese people	WILMINGTON, N. C., Feb. 4The	Tuniy considered by the second not whom to get to her teet and noid		Having heard a lot about Postum I	royal couple move about among their	who have been only a short time in	tug Blanche and United States rever- ue cutter Semincle left hurriedly to-has place of cluth and ther needle, but		had him get some. I did not like it at first, but when we bolled it thor-	A French writer, who visited Hol-	this country. They came to Now market	day in esponse to advices that the Am-	In Sutter From she was too dizzy to speak or to sew. The Mother cried over her-affection-	HENRY CLEWS ADDRESSED	oughly according to directions on the	land some time ago, was particularly	old and he is 24 and small in statue.	erican schooner Bell O'Neil, 394 tons, Ceptain Ceffin, from Perth Amboy, to ate words of fear and love and doubt.	TENNI ULEWS AUUNESSED	package, I liked it, felt better, and the	struck with this remark. "This fear- less intercourse of sovereign and sub-	According to d'Aboru, a swarthy	Savannah, was stranded off Cape Locks!	Her heart was torn between the aw- ful need of having the day's work	CONFERENCE ON NAVY	baby was better, too. "At that time my husband was a	ject is even carried on and symbolized	stranger of stocky built appearance. appeared at his home here last Sun-	out two miles from shore whither she done and desire to protect the fittle	UUNFENERUL UN NATI	slave to coffee he had his coffee and I	in the royal palace; for, look at the	day and announced that he was Mrs	drifted Wednesday night. Later a mes- sage arrived that the vessel had gone child. Finally she went to the next		was dving I had had those attacks	palace in The Hague, it does not stand aloof in its grounds, far removed from	d'Aboru's brother-in-law, and by the	to pieces. Vessel and cargo are a to-
	"Jane," she called softly.	NEW YORK, Feb. 4-The conven-	and told him he was only nervous	other buildings, but it is in a continu-	serted her legal guardian.	Ma annual INte Olivit man built in Tone gat upright.	tion organized by Rev. Dr. John Wes-	Irom armking conee for supper.	bus row with other houses, which ad- join it on both sides, and whose win-	The woman objected that she had no brother-in-law and that she never saw	Bath, Maine, in 1886.	It takes a person that has had or is sub- fect to headaches to describe the suffering
	"Is breakfest ready?" she asked	ley Hill in advocacy of a larger Amer- ican merchant marine, had for its	not to make coffee, he would try Pos-	dows overlook the royal garden."	the man before but when the visitor		which attends them.
•	"Excuse," said the Mother trembling,	principal speaker at its session in the	tum When he came home that after-		drew a revolver and threatened to use	VAY THAT MILKIFKFI	Which deterines theme
	"but could you to look at Esther!"	principal apcanet of the	I was and a Doctum sold he		aren a sta must among with him	OAT THAT WUIDLILD	The majority of cases are caused by con-
	uni-1 amain 2" bried Tane "She's al-	Themesto to tong the Honry	I noon he still wanted Postulit, salu ne		it unless she went away with nim,	à -	The majority of cases are caused by con- stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb-
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "Sne's al-	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Clews, the banker. He declared against rovernment subsidy, but in favor of	felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a	WHY IT IS CALLED CALICO.	it unless she went away with him, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab-	à -	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "Sne's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep,	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Olews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the	felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights.	th	it unless she went away with nim, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the	a -	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "Sne's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!"	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Olews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am-	felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better	Damask cames from the city of	it unless she went away with nim, d'Aboru says, she became frightenod and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth-	MAN HAD THREE WIVES	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "Sne's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and tood at the window. Right below were	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Olews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry."	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said he felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh	Damask cames from the city of Damascus; satin from Saytown, in	it unless she went away with nim, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth-	MAN HAD THREE WIVES	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi-
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "Snes al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glanced	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Clews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry."	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said he felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 be when I began to use Postum,	Damask cames from the city of Damascus; satin from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton	it unless she went away with nim, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and	MAN HAD THREE WIVES NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4-There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract-	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "Sne's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glancen out a train swept by with a flash of human faces and suddenly the Moth-	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Olews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry."	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said he felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 Fbs. when I began to use Postum, now I weigh 150. All my children drink Postum and are healthy.	Damask cames from the city of Damascus; satin from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton cioth and where the printing of	it unless she went away with nim, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and	MAN HAD THREE WIVES NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4—There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract- cr, who was found murdered in his	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every
•	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "Sne's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "Till look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glancen out a train swept by with a flash of human faces, and suddenly the Moth- er thought of her meager world. All	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Olews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry."	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said he felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 Pbs. when I began to use Postum, now I weigh 150. All my children drink Postum and are healthy. "Our grocer did not handle Postum,	Damask cames from the city of Damascus; satin from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton cioth and where the printing of calico was first tried; muslin is named from Mosolim, Asia; alpaca, an ani-	it unless she went away with him, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and that the man with her was under ar- rest.	NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4—There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract- cr, who was found murdered in his house here Monday, though the actual	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in re-
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "She's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glanced out a train swept by with a flash of human faces, and suddenly the Moth- er thought of her meager world. All that she knew was that for ten blocks in any direction the world was a chok-	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Clews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry." ALUMNI OF THREE GREAT UNIVERSITIES MEET	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said he felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 fbs. when I began to use Postum, now I weigh 150. All my children drink Postum and are healthy. "Our grocer did not handle Postum, but he got it for us. As our friends saw the good it had done us. they be	Damask cames from the city of Damascus; satin from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton cioth and where the printing of ca?dco was first tried; muslin is named from Mosolim, Asia; alpaca, an ani- mal of the Ilma species, whose wool	it unless she went away with nim, d'Aboru says, she became frightenod and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fled from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and that the man with her was under ar- rest. The husband says the stranger who took his wife away gave his mame as	NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4—There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract- cer, who was found murdered in his house here Monday, though the actural clearing up of the mystery which sur-	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in re- lieving and permanently curing headache.
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "Sne's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glanced out a train swept by with a flash of human faces, and suddenly the Moth- er thought of her meager world. All that she knew was that for ten blocks in any direction the world was a chok- ed win of crumbing tenements, gash-	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Clews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry." ALUMNI OF THREE GREAT UNIVERSITIES MEET	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said he felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 Mbs. when I began to use Postum, now I weigh 150. All my children drink Postum and are healthy. "Our grocer did not handle Postum, but he got it for us. As our friends saw the good it had done us, they be can to drink Postum, and now our	Damask cames from the city of Damascus; satin from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton cioth and where the printing of callco was first tried; muslin is named from Mosolim, Asla; alpaca, an ani- mal of the Ilma species, whose wool serves to make this fabric; taffeta is named from a street in Bagdad; cam-	it unless she went away with nim, d'Aboru says, she became frightenod and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and that the man with her was under ar- rest. The husband says the stranger who took his wife away gave his name as Arestildes Deveaux.	NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4-There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract- cr, who was found murdered in his house here Monday, though the actual clearing up of the mystery which sur- rounds the tragedy has not yet occur- red. The revelations included the	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in re- lieving and permanently curing headache. It has proven a specific for the malady in
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "Sne's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "Till look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glancen out a train swept by with a flash of human faces, and suddenly the Moth- er thought of her meager world. All that she knew was that for ten blocks in any direction the world was a chok- ed ruin of crumbling tenements, gash- ed by a brillingt street or two of glar-	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Clews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry." ALUMNI OF THREE GREAT UNIVERSITIES MEET	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said he felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 Mbs. when I began to use Postum, now I weigh 150. All my children drink Postum and are healthy. "Our grocer did not handle Postum, but he got it for us. As our friends saw the good it had done us, they be- gan to drink Postum, and now our grocer says he can hardly keep enough	Damask cames from the city of Damascus; satin from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton cioth and where the printing of calico was first tried; muslin is named from Mosolim, Asia; alpaca, an ani- mal of the Ilma species, whose wool serves to make this fabric; taffeta is named from a street in Bagdad; cam- bric from Cambral; gauze from Gaza;	it unless she went away with him, d'Aboru says, she became frightenod and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and that the man with her was under ar- rest. The husband says the stranger who took his wife away gave his name as Arestildes Deveaux.	NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4—There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract- cer, who was found murdered in his house here Monday, though the actural clearing up of the mystery which sur-	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in re- lieving and permanently curing headache. It has proven a specific for the malady in all its forms.
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "She's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glanced out a train swept by with a flash of human faces, and suddenly the Moth- er thought of her meager world. All that she knew was that for ten blocks in any direction the world was a chok- ed ruin of crumbling tenements, gash- ed by a brilllant street or two of glar- ing shop-windows. Save that she knew	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Clews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry." ALUMNI OF THREE GREAT UNIVERSITIES MEET BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 4-Prominent	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said he felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 fbs. when I began to use Postum, now I weigh 150. All my children drink Postum and are healthy. "Our grocer did not handle Postum, but he got it for us. As our friends saw the good it had done us, they be- gan to drink Postum, and now our grocer says he can hardly keep enough on hand. "It is hard to down a good thing	Damask cames from the city of Eamascus; satin from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton cioth and where the printing of caffco was first tried; muslin is named from Mosolim, Asia; alpaca, an ani- mal of the lima species, whose wool serves to make this fabric; taffeta is named from a street in Bagdad; cam- bric from Cambral; gauze from Gaza; baize from Bajac; dimity from Damietta; jeans, from Jean; drugget	it unless she went away with him, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and that the man with her was under ar- rest. The husband says the stranger who took his wife away gave his name as Arestildes Deveaux.	NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4-There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract- cr, who was found murdered in his house here Monday, though the actual clearing up of the mystery which sur- rounds the tragedy has not yet occur- red. The revelations included the charge that Wilhelm had three wives living and that he was never divored Another occurrence of interest was the	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in re- lieving and permanently curing headache. It has proven a specific for the malady in all its forms. CONSTIGATION E. Brown, Sum-
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "She's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glance? out a train swept by with a flash of human faces, and suddenly the Moth- er thought of her meager world. All that she knew was that for ten blocks in any direction the world was a chok- ed ruin of crumbling tenements, gash- ed by a brilliant street or two of glar- ing shop-windows. Save that she knew the path that had brought hor here-	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Clews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry." ALUMNI OF THREE GREAT UNIVERSITIES MEET BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 4-Prominent abumni of Yale, Harvard and Dart-	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said he felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 Pbs. when I began to use Postum, now I weigh 150. All my children drink Postum and are healthy. "Our grocer did not handle Postum, but he got it for us. As our friends saw the good it had done us, they be- gan to drink Postum, and now our grocer says he can hardly keep enough on hand. "It is hard to down a good thing when the people find it out. I would	Damask cames from the city of Damascus; satin from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton cioth and where the printing of callco was first tried; muslin is named from Mosolim, Asla; alpaca, an ani- mal of the Ilma species, whose wool serves to make this fabric; taffeta is named from a street in Bagdad; cam- bric from Cambral; gauze from Gaza; haize from Bajac; dimity from Damietta; jeans, from Jean; drugget is derived from the name of a city	it unless she went away with him, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and that the man with her was under ar- rest. The husband says the stranger who took his wife away gave his name as Arestildes Deveaux.	MAN HAD THREE WIVES NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4—There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract- cr, who was found murdered in his house here Monday, though the actual clearing up of the mystery which sur- rounds the tragedy has not yet occur- red. The revelations included the charge that Wilhelm had three wives living and that he was never divorced.	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in re- lieving and permanently curing headache. It has proven a specific for the malady in all its forms. CONSTIPATION E. Brown, Sum- merfield, N.B.,
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "She's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glanced out a train swept by with a flash of human faces, and suddenly the Moth- er thought of her meager world. All that she knew was that for ten blocks in any direction the world was a chok- ed ruin of crumbling tenements, gash- ed by a brilliant street or two of glar- ing shop-windows. Save that she knew the path that had brought hor here first, Broadway, up which she had come years ago in an open truck, sit-	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Olews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry." ALUMNI OF THREE GREAT UNIVERSITIES MEET BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 4-Prominent alumni of Yale, Harvard and Dart- mouth, reflected the glories of their own and each other's universities in	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said he felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 Fbs. when I began to use Postum, now I weigh 150. All my children drink Postum and are healthy. "Our grocer did not handle Postum, but he got it for us. As our friends saw the good it had done us, they be- gan to drink Postum, and now our grocer says he can hardly keep enough on hand. "It is hard to down a good thing when the people find it out. I would not be without Postum for anything in reason."	Damask cames from the city of Damascus; satin from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton cioth and where the printing of caffco was first tried; muslin is named from Mosolim, Asia; alpaca, an ani- mal of the Ilma species, whose wool serves to make this fabric; taffeta is named from a street in Bagdad; cam- bric from Cambral; gauze from Gaza; baize from Bajac; dimity from Damietta; jeans, from Jean; drugget is derived from the name of a city in Ireland, Drogheda; duck it named from Torene in Normandy; blanket	it unless she went away with him, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and that the man with her was under ar- rest. The husband says the stranger who took his wife away gave his name as Arestildes Deveaux.	MAN HAD THREE WIVES NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4—There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract- cr, who was found murdered in his house here Monday, though the actual clearing up of the mystery which sur- rounds the tragedy has not yet occur- red. The revelations included the charge that Wilhelm had three wives living and that he was never divorced. Another occurrence of interest was the action of the police in suddenly bring- ing the widow, Mrs. Mary J. Wilhelm and Nicholar Sicco, a boarder in the	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in re- lieving and permanently curing headache. It has proven a specific for the malady in all its forms. CONSTIPATION HEADACHES. Mrs. Allison E. Brown, Sum- merfield, N.B., writes : — "I
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "She's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glanced out a train swept by with a flash of human faces, and suddenly the Moth- er thought of her meager world. All that she knew was that for ten blocks in any direction the world was a chok- ed ruin of crumbling tenements, gash- ed by a brilliant street or two of glar- ing shop-windows. Save that she knew the path that had brought hor here- first. Broadway, up which she had come years ago in an open truck, sit- ting on her luggage and minding her	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Olews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbilding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry." ALUMNI OF THREE GREAT UNIVERSITIES MEET BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 4-Prominent alumni of Yale, Harvard and Dart- mouth, reflected the glories of their own and each other's universities in anecdete and eulogy at the Exchange	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said he felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 bbs. when I began to use Postum, now I weigh 150. All my children drink Postum and are healthy. "Our grocer did not handle Postum, but he got it for us. As our friends saw the good it had done us, they be- gan to drink Postum, and now our grocer says he can hardly keep enough on hand. "It is hard to down a good thing when the people find it out. I would not be without Postum for anything in reason."	Damask cames from the city of Damascus; satin from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton cioth and where the printing of ca?/co was first tried; muslin is named from Mosolim, Asia; alpaca, an ani- mal of the Ilma species, whose wool serves to make this fabric; taffeta is named from a street in Bagdad; cam- bric from Cambral; gauze from Gaza; haize from Bajac; dimity from Damietta; jeans, from Jean; drugget is derived from the name of a city in Ireland, Drogheda; duck it named from Torqe in Normandy; blanket, a	it unless she went away with hill, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and that the man with her was under ar- rest. The husband says the stranger who took his wife away gave his name as Arcstildes Deveaux. MAINE SMUGGLERS GET HEAVY SENTENCES	NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4-There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract- cr, who was found murdered in his house here Monday, though the actual clearing up of the mystery which sur- rounds the tragedy has not yet occur- red. The revelations included the charge that Wilhelm had three wives living and that he was never divorced Another occurrence of interest was the action of the police in suddenly bring- ing the widow, Mrs. Mary J. Wilhelm and Nicholar Sicco, a boarder in the Wilhelm home, both of whom are held	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in re- lieving and permanently curing headache. It has proven a specific for the malady in all its forms. CONSTIPATION HEADACHES. Mrs. Allison E. Brown, Sum- merfield, N.B., writes : - ''I have been
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "She's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glanced out a train swept by with a flash of human faces, and suddenly the Moth- er thought of her meager world. All that she knew was that for ten blocks in any direction the world was a chok- ed ruin of crumbling tenements, gash- ed by a brilliant street or two of glar- ing shop-windows. Save that she knew the path that had brought hor here- first, Broadway, up which she had come years ago in an open truck, sit- ting on her luggage and minding her absent-minded husband and two little children. Beyond that lay the Atlantic,	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Clews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry." ALUMNI OF THREE GREAT UNIVERSITIES MEET BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 4Prominent alumni of Yale, Harvard and Dart- mouth, reflected the glories of their own and each other's universities in anecdote and eulogy at the Exchange Club tonight at a dinner of the Yale Club tonight at a dinner of the Yale	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said he felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 Pbs. when I began to use Postum, now I weigh 150. All my children drink Postum and are healthy. "Our grocer did not handle Postum, but he got it for us. As our friends saw the good it had done us, they be- gan to drink Postum, and now our grocer says he can hardly keep enough on hand. "It is hard to down a good thing when the people find it out. I would not be without Postum for anything in reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellwille" in pkgs. "There's a Rea-	Damask cames from the city of Damascus; satin from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton cioth and where the printing of calico was first tried; muslin is named from Mosolim, Asia; alpaca, an ani- mal of the Ilma species, whose wool serves to make this fabric; taffeta is named from a street in Bagdad; cam- bric from Cambral; gauze from Gaza; baize from Bajac; dimity from Damletta; jeans, from Jean; drugget is derived from the name of a city in Ireland, Drogheda; duck it named from Torqe in Normandy; blanket is called after Thomas Blanket, a famous clothier connected with the	it unless she went away with him, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and that the man with her was under ar- rest. The husband says the stranger who took his wife away gave his name as Arcstildes Deveaux. MAINE SMUGGLERS GET HEAVY SENTENCES	MAN HAD THREE WIVES NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4—There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract- cr, who was found murdered in his house here Monday, though the actual clearing up of the mystery which sur- rounds the tragedy has not yet occur- red. The revelations included the charge that Wilhelm had three wives living and that he was never divorced. Another occurrence of interest was the action of the police in suddenly bring- ing the widow, Mrs. Mary J. Wilhelm and Nicholar Sicco, a boarder in the Wilhelm home, both of whom are held concerning the murder, before the body of the murdered man. Mys. Wilhelm	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in re- lieving and permanently curing headache. It has proven a specific for the malady in all its forms.
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "She's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glanced out a train swept by with a flash of human faces, and suddenly the Moth- er thought of her meager world. All that she knew was that for ten blocks in any direction the world was a chok- ed ruin of crumbling tenements, gash- ed by a brilliant street or two of glar- ing shop-windows. Save that she knew the path that had brought hor here first, Broadway, up which she had come years ago in an open truck, sit- ting on her luggage and minding her absent-minded husband and two littlo children. Beyond that lay the Atlantic, and beyond that a ratting ride in a train and hervend the ride the mass-	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Olews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry." ALUMNI OF THREE GREAT UNIVERSITIES MEET BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 4-Prominent alumni of Yale, Harvard and Dart- mouth, reflected the glories of their own and each other's universities in anecdote and eulogy at the Exchange Club tonight at a dinner of the Yale Club of Boston.	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said ne felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 Pbs. when I began to use Postum, now I weigh 150. All my children drink Postum and are healthy. "Our grocer did not handle Postum, but he got it for us. As our friends saw the good it had done us, they be- gan to drink Postum, and now our grocer says he can hardly keep enough on hand. "It is hard to down a good thing when the people find it out. I would not be without Postum for anything in reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek., Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Rea- gon"	Damask cames from the city of Damask cames from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton cioth and where the printing of caffco was first tried; muslin is named from Mosolim, Asia; alpaca, an ani- mal of the Ilma species, whose wool serves to make this fabric; taffeta is named from a street in Bagdad; cam- bric from Cambral; gauze from Gaza; haize from Bajac; dimity from Damietta; jeans, from Jean; drugget is derived from the name of a city in Ireland, Drogheda; duck it named from Torqe in Normandy; blanket is called after Thomas Blanket, a famous clothier connected with the introduction of woollens into Eng- land 1240; serve derives into Eng-	it unless she went away with him, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and that the man with her was under ar- rest. The husband says the stranger who took his wife away gave his name as Arestildes Deveaux. MAINE SMUGGLERS GET HEAVY SENTENCES POETLAND, Me., Feb. 4This af-	MAN HAD THREE WIVES NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4–There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract- or, who was found murdered in his house here Monday, though the actual clearing up of the mystery which sur- rounds the tragedy has not yet occur- red. The revelations included the charge that Wilhelm had three wives living and that he was never divorced Another occurrence of interest was the action of the police in suddenly bring- ing the widow, Mrs. Mary J. Wilhelm and Nicholar Sicco, a boarder in the Wilhelm home, both of whom are held concerning the murder, before the body of the murdered man. Mys. Wilhelm	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in re- lieving and permanently curing headache. It has proven a specific for the malady in all its forms. CONSTIPATION HEADACHES. Troubled with Constipation and Headaches for a long time. After trying different destors to no effect, a friend asked me to
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "She's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glanced out a train swept by with a flash of human faces, and suddenly the Moth- er thought of her meager world. All that she knew was that for ten blocks in any direction the world was a chok- ed ruin of crumbling tenements, gash- ed by a brilliant street or two of glar- ing shop-windows. Save that she knew the path that had brought hor here- first, Broadway, up which she had come years ago in an open truck, sit- ting on her luggage and minding her absent-minded husband and two littlo children. Beyond that lay the Atlantic, and beyond that a ratting ride in a train, and beyond the ride the mass- acre in the Rumsian village of Pley-	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Clews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry." ALUMNI OF THREE GREAT UNIVERSITIES MEET BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 4-Prominent alumni of Yale, Harvard and Dart- mouth, reflected the glories of their own and each other's universities in anecdote and eulogy at the Exchange Club tonight at a dinner of the Yale Club of Boston. Samuel L. Powers, of the class of 1874, of Dartmouth, pleaded for closer relations between his own college and	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said he felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 Pbs. when I began to use Postum, now I weigh 150. All my children drink Postum and are healthy. "Our grocer did not handle Postum, but he got it for us. As our friends saw the good it had done us, they be- gan to drink Postum, and now our grocer says he can hardly keep enough on hand. "It is hard to down a good thing when the people find it out. I would not be without Postum for anything in reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek., Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Rea- son."	Damask cames from the city of Eamascus; satin from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton cioth and where the printing of caffco was first tried; muslin is named from Mosolim, Asia; alpaca, an ani- mal of the lima species, whose wool serves to make this fabric; taffeta is named from a street in Bagdad; cam- bric from Cambral; gauze from Gaza; baize from Bajac; dimity from Damletta; jeans, from Jean; drugget is derived from the name of a city in Ireland, Drogheda; duck it named from Torqe in Normandy; blanket is called after Thomas Blanket, a famous clothler connected with the introduction of woollens into Eng- land, 1340; serge derives its name from for the street in the street in the street in the street inter- tion of the street into Eng- land, 1340; serge derives its name from for the street into the street is name for many street is name for the street is n	it unless she went away with him, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and that the man with her was under ar- rest. The husband says the stranger who took his wife away gave his name as Arestildes Deveaux. MAINE SMUGGLERS GET HEAVY SENTENCES PORTLAND, Me., Feb. 4This af- ternoom in the United States district	MAN HAD THREE WIVES NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4-There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract- cr, who was found murdered in his house here Monday, though the actual clearing up of the mystery which sur- rounds the tragedy has not yet occur- red. The revelations included the charge that Wilhelm had three wives living and that he was never divorced Another occurrence of interest was the action of the police in suddenly bring- ing the widow, Mrs. Mary J. Wilhelm and Nicholar Sicco, a boarder in the Wilhelm home, both of whom are held concerning the murder, before the body of the murdered man. Ms. Wilhelm	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in re- lieving and permanently curing headache. It has proven a specific for the malady in all its forms.
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "She's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glanced out a train swept by with a flash of human faces, and suddenly the Moth- er thought of her meager world. All that she knew was that for ten blocks in any direction the world was a chok- ed ruin of crumbling tenements, gash- ed by a brilliant street or two of glar- ing shop-windows. Save that she knew the path that had brought hor here- first, Broadway, up which she had come years ago in an open truck, sit- ting on her luggage and minding her absent-minded husband and two littlo children. Beyond that lay the Atlantic, and beyond that a ratting ride in a train, and beyond the ride the mass- acre in the Russian village of Pley- noff. And she thought a children is being and shought in	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Clews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry." ALUMNI OF THREE GREAT UNIVERSITIES MEET BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 4-Prominent alumni of Yale, Harvard and Dart- mouth, reflected the glories of their own and each other's universities in anecdote and eulogy at the Exchange Club tonight at a dinner of the Yale Club of Boston. Samuel L. Powers, of the class of 1874, of Dartmouth, pleaded for closer relations between his own college and	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said no felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 Pbs. when I began to use Postum, now I weigh 150. All my children drink Postum and are healthy. "Our grocer did not handle Postum, but he got it for us. As our friends saw the good it had done us, they be- gan to drink Postum, and now our grocer says he can hardly keep enough on hand. "It is hard to down a good thing when the people find it out. I would not be without Postum for anything in reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek., Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Rea- son." Ever read the above letter ? A new one appears from time to tim3. They	Damask cames from the city of Damascus; satin from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton cioth and where the printing of ca?/co was first tried; muslin is named from Mosolim, Asia; alpaca, an ani- mal of the Ilma species, whose wool serves to make this fabric; taffeta is named from a street in Bagdad; cam- bric from Cambral; gauze from Gaza; haize from Bajac; dimity from Damietta; jeans, from Jean; drugget is derived from the name of a city in Ireland, Drogheda; duck it named from Torqe in Normandy; blanket is called after Thomas Blanket, a famous clothier connected with the introduction of woollens into Eng- land, 1340; serge derives its name from Zerga a Spanish name for a peculiar woollen blanket; velvet from	it unless she went away with him, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and that the man with her was under ar- rest. The husband says the stranger who took his wife away gave his name as Arcstildes Deveaux. MAINE SMUGGLERS GET HEAVY SENTENCES PORTLAND, Me., Feb. 4.—This af- ternoon in the United States district court, James Welch, 18 years of age, undicted for breaking and entering and	MAN HAD THREE WWES NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4-There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract- cr, who was found murdered in his house here Monday, though the actual clearing up of the mystery which sur- rounds the tragedy has not yet occur- red. The revelations included the charge that Wilhelm had three wives living and that he was never divorced Another occurrence of interest was the action of the police in suddenly bring- ing the widow, Mrs. Mary J. Wilhelm wilhelm home, both of whom are held concerning the murder, before the body of the murdered man. Mes. Wilhelm though she became hysterical, with stood the test fairly well, but Sicca was so disturbed that his arraingment which was set for today, had to bo	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in re- lieving and permanently curing headache. It has proven a specific for the malady in all its forms.
	"Sick again?" cried Jane. "She's al- ways sick." Then the harsh voice soft- ened. "I'll look in later. Let me sleep, Mother!" The Mother walked back blindly and stood at the window. Right below were the elevated tracks, and as she glanced out a train swept by with a flash of human faces, and suddenly the Moth- er thought of her meager world. All that she knew was that for ten blocks in any direction the world was a chok- ed ruin of crumbling tenements, gash- ed by a brilliant street or two of glar- ing shop-windows. Save that she knew the path that had brought hor here- first, Broadway, up which she had come years ago in an open truck, sit- ting on her luggage and minding her absent-minded husband and two littlo children. Beyond that lay the Atlantic, and beyond that a ratting ride in a train, and beyond the ride the mass- acre in the Russian village of Pley- noff. And she thought a children is being and shought in	Metropolitan Temple tonight, Henry Clews, the banker. He declared against government subsidy, but in favor of the repeal of the law, forbidding the transfer of foreign-built ships to Am- erican registry." ALUMNI OF THREE GREAT UNIVERSITIES MEET BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 4-Prominent alumni of Yale, Harvard and Dart- mouth, reflected the glories of their own and each other's universities in anecdote and eulogy at the Exchange Club tonight at a dinner of the Yale Club of Boston. Samuel L. Powers, of the class of 1874, of Dartmouth, pleaded for closer relations between his own college and	noon, he still wanted Fostum, said he felt better than for a long time, and that night he rested better than for a good many nights. "From that day till this he has been a Postum drinker and has better health than for years. I used to weigh 120 Pbs. when I began to use Postum, now I weigh 150. All my children drink Postum and are healthy. "Our grocer did not handle Postum, but he got it for us. As our friends saw the good it had done us, they be- gan to drink Postum, and now our grocer says he can hardly keep enough on hand. "It is hard to down a good thing when the people find it out. I would not be without Postum for anything in reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek., Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Rea- son."	Damask cames from the city of Damascus; satin from Saytown, in China; calico from Calicut, in India, formerly celebrated for its cotton cioth and where the printing of ca?/co was first tried; muslin is named from Mosolim, Asia; alpaca, an ani- mal of the Ilma species, whose wool serves to make this fabric; taffeta is named from a street in Bagdad; cam- bric from Cambral; gauze from Gaza; haize from Bajac; dimity from Damietta; jeans, from Jean; drugget is derived from the name of a city in Ireland, Drogheda; duck it named from Torqe in Normandy; blanket is called after Thomas Blanket, a famous clothier connected with the introduction of woollens into Eng- land, 1340; serge derives its name from Zerga a Spanish name for a peculiar woollen blanket; velvet from	it unless she went away with him, d'Aboru says, she became frightened and finally was forced to consent. d'Ab- oru says he fied from the house in the meantime, found his wife missing when he returned and has heard noth- ing from her until tonight when he was informed that she had applied for protection to the Providence police and that the man with her was under ar- rest. The husband says the stranger who took his wife away gave his name as Arestildes Deveaux. MAINE SMUGGLERS GET HEAVY SENTENCES PORTLAND, Me., Feb. 4This af- ternoom in the United States district	MAN HAD THREE WWES NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 4-There were sensational developments today in the case of Frank Wilhelm, the contract- cr, who was found murdered in his house here Monday, though the actual clearing up of the mystery which sur- rounds the tragedy has not yet occur- red. The revelations included the charge that Wilhelm had three wives living and that he was never divorced Another occurrence of interest was the action of the police in suddenly bring- ing the widow, Mrs. Mary J. Wilhelm wilhelm home, both of whom are held concerning the murder, before the body of the murdered man. Mes. Wilhelm though she became hysterical, with stood the test fairly well, but Sicca was so disturbed that his arraingment which was set for today, had to bo	stipation and dyspepsia. The dull throb- bings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on, purely indi- cates that there is something the matter with the stomach or bowels. To the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters reaches every part of the system is due its success in re- lieving and permanently curing headache. It has proven a specific for the malady in all its forms. CONSTIPATION HEADACHES. Troubled with Constipation and Headaches for a long time. After trying different destors to no effect, a friend asked me to