

CALGARY BATTALION TO REACH THE CITY ON WEDNESDAY NEXT

The 511th Calgary Battalion, numbering 800, is due to arrive in the city on Tuesday next. Their stay will not be lengthy, as it was announced some time ago by the military authorities that any battalions arriving in the city would only be for a short time. It is understood that the unit will arrive here in two trains on Tuesday morning at the early hour of 3 o'clock.

Preparations for their reception are being made by the military authorities. Yesterday an inspection of the quarters at the exhibition building was made by the officials, and with the exception of a few minor matters the city is ready to receive the new battalion.

Owing to the storm in the west last night it was impossible for The Standard correspondent in Calgary to supply further information regarding the personnel of the battalion, but it is understood that the unit was recruited strictly in the west.

One More Recruit.
The naval recruiting office secured only one man yesterday. His name was Frederick Gaudin, of Restigouche county.

Four other applications were received at the central recruiting office, but up until 4 o'clock they had not been examined by the medical examiner.

Lieut. McBeath, of the Canadian Engineers, arrived back in the city yesterday from Moncton and Dorchester, where he has been for the last few days in the interest of the Engineers.

Mrs. Benjamin Titus, of 122 Adelaide street, received word yesterday that her son, Private Leslie Titus, was missing. The last word received concerning the young soldier was four weeks ago. He was then reported wounded, and she received a reply to the effect that her son was missing.

Fred Pattman, son of Mrs. W. J. Pattman, of 257 Carmarthen street, and one of the youngest boys to enlist in the service of the Empire, being at the time of enlisting only fourteen years old, is on his way home on a three months' furlough after spending nearly two years on the firing line.

George C. Dugan, late pianist at the Unique Theatre, left yesterday for Quebec, where he is to report to the Canadian Engineers. He was the recipient of a wrist watch, the gift of his fellow employees before going.

NY NOVICES WALKED THE HOT SANDS AT THE MYSTIC SHRINE S'SS ON

Luxir Temple, A.A.O.N.M.S., held a ceremonial session in the Shrine room, Masonic Temple, Gormley St., last night, and from the happy smiles of the Shrine members, wearing the little red hats, and the serious expressions on the faces of others in the room, who it is supposed, were candidates, there was no doubt left in the minds of any outsiders who were guests after the ceremony, but that the Ceremonial Session was in every shape a "howling" success.

An actress was heard once to sing a song entitled, "I would be sure to love a Shriner, for a Shriner never tells," and this appears to be quite true, for it was needless to ask any of the members last night just what happened within the walls of the Temple between the hours of eight and 10.30 o'clock.

There might have been seen a number of innocent looking articles about the room, a thing which looked like a miniature chaise-longue, a large cannon, a camel, and last, but not least, a number of gentlemen who would be qualified to blister the feet of any candidate who wished to walk over the burning sands. The only way that a person can find out just what transpires at one of these ceremonial sessions, is to make application for membership into the Shrine, take what is handed out to him, and, of course, smile, no matter what happens. Last night there were sixteen candidates, and it goes without saying they are all perfectly aware of what one has to go through to become one of the real ones. There were 150 Shrine members present and the session is said to have been one of the most successful ever held in the city.

George E. Day was Pastmaster, and like the Noble Recorder Charles Robinson, they were busy men, along with other Shrine members who took important parts in the ceremony.

At the close of the session a score of gentlemen acted as a committee and served an excellent luncheon. After the guests had been passed round, those present obtained comfortable seats and for a couple of hours were delighted with a good entertainment. In addition to moving pictures, through the kindness of Noble W. C. McKay, manager of the Opera House, Eddie Flavelle and a number of his

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the salt of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

company entertained the assembly with songs and musical selections. It was a great night and fully enjoyed by all.

A quiet military wedding was celebrated yesterday at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. John Hardwick on Main street, when Major Morris of the 187th Battalion, was united in marriage to Miss Margaret Feddon of Toronto.

Mrs. William Howes, New York, arrived here yesterday, called on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Robert Granville, 190 Main street.

Prof. Alexander Graham-Bell passed through the city last night on his way from Cape Breton to Washington.

How I Became a Photographer.

By Bessie Eytton.
[Bessie Eytton of Selig appears in short length pictures released through General Film Service.]

I have been told that my entrance and my success in motion pictures were somewhat unusual for the reason that I had no previous dramatic experience. As you know, a large majority of those prominent in the art of the silent drama were formerly players in the spoken drama. Very few players, I have been informed, have arisen to prominence in screen work who were not previously experienced on the stage.

I never had any experience in dramatic work—not even amateur theatricals—before I began work as a photographer for the Selig Company. The way I started was unusual. My home is in Los Angeles, where the Pacific Coast studios owned by the Selig Company are located. I visited the Selig studios with a party of friends and purely for pleasure. I liked motion pictures on the screen, but at the time of my first visit to the studio four years ago, appearing in the movies was something entirely foreign to my thoughts.

When I visited the studio floor the producer espied me and said: "I like your type, it is one I sadly need in this picture." More for mere sport than anything else I consented to take the minor role that was offered me. And I have worked for the Selig Company ever since that time, and I hope to continue. What success I have achieved in the movies is due solely to hard work and willingness to heed instructions.

The art of acting for motion pictures is not an easy art. There is no means of ascertaining from one day to another just what the character role or what action the director will call upon one to portray. I have enacted probably four or five hundred different character roles during my experience and these characters range from a leader in highest social circles to a Salvation Army girl. A motion picture actress must know how to ride, to shoot, to fence, to dance, and to motor, for there is no telling when one may be called upon to exemplify these and other accomplishments.

Many long hours are spent on "locations" so called. I have worked from early morning until late at night in just one or two scenes of a film play. One of the problems confronting motion picture actresses is appropriate dressing rooms when changes of costumes are necessary and there are no dwelling houses or other shelters near at hand. I solved this problem by arranging the interior of my automobile as a dressing room. The interior of my automobile contains a take-down dressing table; mirrors are arranged on the sides, and I have a specially devised drawer located under the front seat which contains cosmetics and other articles essential to the art of motion picture make-up.

I have never regretted my entrance

HOMELESS

Their only Hope is in The Generosity of Their Allies

To Serbia, John Bull is The Good Samaritan. He found what is left of the Serbian nation, bruised and bleeding after the never-to-be-forgotten flight from the invader across the mountains in the dead of winter, and he has sheltered them AS FAR AS HE CAN. But the work is supported by private contribution, and more and more help is sorely needed.

Canada is asked to contribute her share to the work of relief—food and shelter now for the homeless Serbian refugees—and if the remnant of the nation can be kept alive, money to put them back on their farms and in their homes in re-conquered Serbia. It is a glorious work, and Canada is proud the opportunity is given her to share her prosperity with our valiant ally.

Would you be willing to make your contribution a Christmas offering, instead of spending money on the usual gifts. Think it over and act quickly. There is dire need. Send a generous contribution.
