The Ruther status and was some political partisans, as published yesterday, has been fully confirmed, and it appears that the Supreme Court, either from political partisanship or corruption, was the principal promoter of the affair. The Courts, as interpreters of the written constitutions of the States, are all powerful in cases that would be determined by Legislature or Executive elsewhere, and, as care is not taken to have the Courts pure, their powers are often prostituted to the bolstering up of some political faction at the expense of the majority of the people. The history of the present case is given in the following despatch to the Bangor Whig:

Joseph Brooks, who claims to have been elected Governor in 1872, took the oath of office to-day, about 11 o'clock this morning, before Chief Justice McClue, and within five minutes from that time took forcible possession of the Gov. ernor's office and ejected Gov. Baxter by force.

remor's office and ejected Gov. Baxter by force.

About one yearago Brooks commenced a suit in the Circuit Court of Pulaski county for the office of Governor, and about the same time the Attorney General commenced a suit against Gov. Baxter by a quo varranto in the Supreme Court. The latter court rendered a decision that the courts of the State had no power over a contested election for the office of Governor and it was generally regarded that the courts of the State had no power over a contested election for the office of Governor and it was generally regarded that the matter was settled, so far as the courts were concerned. The Legislature in 1878 opened the returns and declared that Mr. Baxter was elected. Nothing more was thought of the matter, particularly, until a few days ago, when the Attorney of Gov. Baxter desired that the case in the Court be taken up on a demurer with the object of disposing of the same. Yesterday, when there were but few in the court room and neither of the Governor's counsel present, Judge Whylock announced his decision overruling the demurer, and none of Baxter's counsel being present to answer, plead over, or move for an appeal, a judgment of ouster was issued, a write the court was a gentle.

Great excitement prevails throughout the city. The following despatch was sent by the Governor to the President:

Our Ottawa dispatch arrived too late for publication yesterday afternoon. We very rarely get a dispatch from the Ottawa office, relating to the previous night's session of Parliament, before 2 p. m. Several Base Ball Clubs were practising on the Flats vesterday afternoon. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 15.

To the President of the United States:in the long pending case brought by Joseph Brooks for the office of Governor of this State a demurrer to complaint was overruled and an immediate judgment of ouster against me given. This was done in the absence of counsel for me and without retire and immediately therewithout notice, and immediately thereat r the Circuit Judge adjourned the court. The claimant has taken possession of the State buildings and cted me by force. I propose to take easures immediately to resume posses-

Are not the Ministers prepared to reply to arguments of every kind? We imagine that the information is wanted for the purpose of ascertaining how many of the friends, relations and partners of Ministers appeared to be inspired with a knowledge of the character of the new tariff.

Not only is the new tariff directly hostile to the Maritime Provinces, but the time of its coming into force seems to have been fixed with the purpose of making it as severe on St John and Halifax as possible. Montreal and Toronto invariably get their goods in early, and now have their spring stocks snugly stored away in their warehouses, while the importation of goods here has until begun. The Ministry rushed their tariff resolutions in at the earliest possible moment, seemingly eager to head off as many of the New Brunswick and Nova Scotia importers as possible.
