MODERN GEMS.

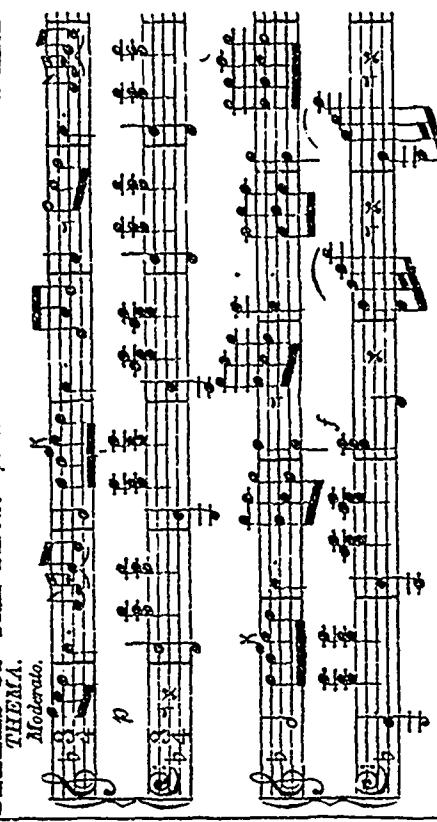

Short Voluntaries for the Cabinet Organ selected and arranged from the works of standard and classical authors.

By THOMAS A'BECKET, Jr.

A collection of gems from the works of standard and classical writers, especially adapted for cabinet organs of all grades, from the small family instrument to the largest, &c., with pedals, used in chapel service. The selections will be found available for all occasions where voluntaries are required, either in the church or at the fireside; they are intended for the organ, and are not piano arrangements of popular dance tunes. The list of composers whose works are introduced, embraces the names of Mozart, Handel, Mendelssohn, Hauptman, Schumann, Beethoven, Gounod, Merkel, Clarke, Schubert, Stainer, Bennett, Tours, Verdi, and others of less celebrity. Short preludes, interludes, rondolets and chants in various keys, are interspersed for the use of young performers. As the work is intended for general use, the selections are of a medium grade of difficulty only.
