ST. JOSEPH ST. MONTREAL.
April 12, 1878.Mercantile Summary.A RICH vein of Mica has been discovered, it is said, on the river Lievres, in the township of Portland.THE branch line of railway to Kinmount, to connect the Snowdon mine with the outer world is completed, save about three quarters of a mile.THE firm of Shoolbred & Co., Carpet and Furniture Warehouse, Ottawa, has been dissolved, Messrs. Rochester and Bute, the partners, retiring.IN mentioning the removal of Messrs. W. J.
McMaster & Co. to this city, we should have stated the style of the firm in London, England, as J. & W. J. McMaster.THERE is something doing in the export of Marmora iron ore. The schooner Lewis Ross cleared from Cobourg a week ago with a cargo of the ore for Cleveland.AMONG the recent changes may be noticed the dissolution of the well known clothing firm of Messrs. James O'Brien & Co., Montreal, Mr.
Wm. O'Brien retiring. The business will be continued under the same name.Mr. W. B. Bowie, a dry goods retailer in Montreal on the over crowded Main St., had recently purchased the insolvent stock of one Hurteau, but not got possession of it, has failed. This is Mr. Bowie's third, if not fourth, failure within twelve years.THE failure of C. & W. Wurtele, Iron Merchants of Quebec, which we noticed in last issue, seems worthy of more than a passing note, as it now transpires that the firm has been in insolvent circumstances for years back, indeed, since the very formation of the present firm. The Wurtele Estate ranks upon the assets of the firm for $29,000, which creditors have thrown out entirely, considering that that estate has already received more than it was entitled to.
The liabilities amount to about $26,000, of which $20,000 is in Europe. No settlement has yet been arrived at, though the insolvents have made an offer of eight and ninepence on the pound. The failure was not anticipated by the trade.
