

language and separate schs.—28
Toronto St., Toronto.

BURLAND, George Bull, Presdt. of the Brit. Am. Bank Note Co., is the s. of the late Benj. Burland, by his wife Belinda, dau. of Robt. Roe. B. at Loggan Hall, Wexford, Irel., 1829, he was ed. by private tutor, and came to Can. with his parents, 1840. For some yrs. he occupied a position in the office of his uncle, the late Geo. P. Bull, then prop. of the Hamilton Gazette. Returning to Montreal, where the family had settled, he associated himself with the late Geo. Matthews, bank note engraver, whose mangr. and partner he eventually became. Afterward he established the Brit. Am. Bank Note Co., becoming Presdt., a position he still retains. This co. for many yrs. executed the greater portion of the bank note printing and engraving work required by the Dom. Govt. He likewise established the Burland Lithographic Co., 1874, of which he was mangr. and presdt. up to 1886, when he was compelled to retire from the position owing to the absorbing character of his other duties. For several yrs. he published the Can. Illustrated News, together with other papers of a similar character. He is a life Gov. of the Montreal Genl. Hospital, of the Western Female Hospital, of the Montreal Dispensary, Boys' Home, Prot. Orphans' Asylum, etc.; a dir. of the Soc. for the Protection of Women and Children, V.-P. of the Windsor Hotel Co., and Presdt. of the Prot. Insane Asylum for the Province of Quebec. He is also Presdt., since 1896, of the Lachine Rapids Hydraulic and Land Co. He m., 1st, 1857, Clarissa, young dau. of the late Geo. Cochran, Quebec (she d. Dec., 1890); and 2ndly, Sept., 1894, Amelia Elizabeth, relict of the late F. H. Cowper-Cox, Ottawa. Politically, a Con.; in religious belief he is Cong.—287 University St., Montreal.

BURLAND, Lt.-Col. Jeffrey Hale, s. of the preceding, was b. in Montreal, Mch. 19, 1861, and received his education at the Montreal Acad. and McGill Univ. He graduated B.A. Sc. (with honors in Nat. Science) at McGill, 1882, and was for a time a fellow of that univ. He has been for yrs. associated with his father in business, and is now V.-P. of the Brit. Am. Bank Note Co. and Presdt. of the Can. Engrossing and Lithograph. Co. He is on the directorate of the Citizens' Light and Power Co., and of the Standard Light Co., and V.-P. of the Union Card and Paper Co. He is likewise a mem. of the Bd. of Trade, a life gov. of the Montreal Genl. Hospital and of the Western and Homeop. and of the Co. of Carleton Hospitals, Hon. Sec. of the Prot. Ho. of Industry and Refuge, a fellow of the Chemical Soc., London, of the Royal Geol. Soc.; of the Imp. Inst., and a mem. of the Brit. Assn. He holds a 1st-class r.s.i. cert., and succeeded to the command of the 6th Fusiliers, Dec. 16, 1892. He was elected Presdt. of the Montreal Amalgamated Rifle Assn., 1895, and Presdt. of the Montreal Mil. Inst., 1897. He is also a mem. of the Ex. of the Dom. Rifle Assn. Lt.-Col. B. was one of the originators of the movement for sending a Can. batt. to Eng. in connection with the celebration of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee, 1897, and was one of the officers selected by the govt. to proceed to Eng. on that occasion. Politically, he is a Con. He is a mem. of the Cong. Ch., and stands high in the Masonic brotherhood. He m., June, 1896, Isabel May, dau. of Hy. Megarry, Mangr. of the Northern Bank, Lurgan, Irel.—824 Sherbrooke St., Montreal; St. James's Club; Rideau Club.

BURN, George, bank official, was b. at Thurso, Scot., Apl. 10, 1847, and obtained his first experience as a banker in the Royal Bank of Scot. Coming to Can., he joined the staff of the Royal Canadian Bank, Toronto, Aug., 1866, and, later, was accountant of the Exchange Bank, Montreal. He was apptd. Cashier of the Bank of Ottawa, his present office, Jan., 1880. He is a mem. of the Ex. Council of the Can. Bankers'