8. No master of any vessel carrying Chinese immigrant, shall land any person of Chinese origin, or permit any to land from such vessel, until a permit so to do, stating that the provisions of this Act have been complied with, has been granted to the master of such vessel by the controller; and every master of a vessel who violates the provisions of this section shall incur a penalty of one hundred dollars.

No Chinese to be landed until permit is obtained.

Penalty.

2. The landing of a person of Chinese origin from a vessel wherever referred to in this Act shall not be held to apply to the landing of such person on the wharf and the placing of him in a proper building where he may remain until the provisions of this Act have been complied with and the controller has given his authority for his departure therefrom,—and such person while in such building shall for the purpose of this Act be held to be still on board the vessel by which he arrived; this provision, however, shall not allow the placing of such person in such building until all quarantine requirements have been complied with.

“Landing” defined.

9. No controller at any port shall grant a permit allowing Chinese immigrants to land, until the quarantine officer has granted a bill of health and has certified, after due examination, that no leprosy or infectious, contagious, loathsome or dangerous disease exists on board such vessel; and no permit to land shall be granted to any Chinese immigrant who is suffering from leprosy or from any infectious, contagious, loathsome or dangerous diseases.

Bill of health to be obtained.

No permit in certain cases.

10. Every conductor or other person in charge of any railway train or car bringing Chinese immigrants into Canada shall be personally liable to Her Majesty for the payment of the duty tax imposed by section 6 of this Act in respect of any immigrant brought by or on such railway train or car, and shall deliver, immediately on his arrival, to the controller or other proper officer at the port or place of arrival, a report in the same terms as is required to be made by section 15 of this Act, by the master of a vessel, of all persons of Chinese origin arriving by or being on board of the railway train or car of which he is in charge, and shall, unless such persons are in transit through Canada, pay or cause to be paid to the controller the total amount of the tax payable by Chinese immigrants so arriving by such railway train or car, and he shall not allow any such immigrants to disembark from such train or car until after such report has been made and such tax has been paid.

Liability and duty of conductor of railway train as to payment of tax.

11. Every Chinese immigrant who enters Canada otherwise than by disembarking from any vessel or railway train or car, shall forthwith make a statement and declaration of his entry to the controller or other proper officer at the nearest or most convenient port or place, and shall forthwith pay to such controller or officer the tax of one hundred dollars imposed by this Act; and if the statement and declaration is made to an officer other than a controller authorized to keep

Chinese entering Canada otherwise than by vessel or railway.
