Another cup of brew

No, the Coffee Shop will not look like this when completed.

Wanna pick up a piece of (espresso, cappucino, Viennois, apple strudel and a cup of cafe au lait), fresh juices, cappucino on the way to the Bookstore?

How about a fresh corned beef on rye before a long session in RATT?

There's good news for students who have been making the long trek to HUB or the Power Plant to escape cafeteria food — the Students' Union coffee bar will be opening soon!

According to SU vp internal Sharon Bell there have been problems with the roofing and dishwasher for the shop. But the coffee bar's tentative opening, scheduled for this Thursday, will be delayed no later than next week, she says.

The Students' Union coffee bar, as yet unnamed, is an attempt to provide "alternative food service" for students in SUB says Bell. This "alternative" menu will include ground coffees (espresso, cappucino, Viennois, cafe au lait), fresh juices, pastries, and salads, and an array of interesting sandwiches like corned beef, roast beef and pastrami.

"We're hoping to provide food of a better quality than has been customary," says Bell. "It won't be dirt cheap, of course, but it will be cheaper than you'd pay anywhere else." The coffee bar's location also makes it ideal for students on the west side of campus.

After a trial period, live entertainment and local art are being considered as additions to the coffee bar. "We hope to display the artwork of BFA students at the university if arrangements can be made," says Bell.

The coffee bar's hours aren't definite yet, but Bell says it will be open from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. beginning September 24.
