

and Delaware Nations to the state of Pennsylvania we have never heard any complaint.

Brothers.... We are obliged on this occasion to make a long speech. We again desire you to hear us patiently. The business is of the highest importance, and a great many words are necessary fully to explain it. for we desire you may perfectly understand us. and there is no danger of your forgetting what we say because we will give you our speech in writing.

Brothers - We have explicitly declared to you that we cannot now make the Ohio River the boundary between us.

This agrees with our speech to your deputies at Niagara - that in order to establish a just and permanent peace, some concessions would be necessary on your part as well as ours. Brothers the concessions
