

was coming up to his room at 9:30 and Honeywell saw Palmer near the door of the Reserved Gallery when he (Honeywell) was on his way to Mr. Weighen's office.

When Mr. Weighen came into his office he said Palmer would be in in a few minutes and asked us to each occupy a cupboard in his room. Mr. Zorn took the South West cupboard and Mr. Honeywell the South East cupboard.

A few minutes later we heard two people coming into the room and recognized the voice of Mr. Weighen and heard him say "take that man Mr. Palmer." The first few moments the voices were low and we could not distinguish the words, then Mr. Weighen said plainly "now here about the Church matter." Palmer said "Well Church had ~~some~~ was getting a syndicate of people to buy property each member of which was to put up $1,000, this property was to be sold to the Government for a Printing Bureau, it was to be done by the $3,000 paid by this syndicate, and $2,000 each to be put up by four Ministers of the Government; 2 committees heard Stewart, Ralsh and Woodward, Honeywell heard Stewart and Woodward, the fourth name was indistinct; the names of the ministers were not to appear. The $11,000 paid on the property and the property conveyed to some other person - at this point the name Snider Department of Trade and Commerce was mentioned - we could not distinguish the connection which he had with it. He had

Honeywell
Stewart