

this communication, I have to inform you that in reporting any action of the Indian Council you should invariably send to the Department a copy, certified by you as Agent, of the Resolutions passed by the Council.

You will please follow this course as regards the building to be pulled down and the repairs required to be made to the foundation of the Mission house, specifying in respect of the former the number and character of the buildings to be demolished; and in the latter furnishing an Estimate of the cost of the proposed repairs and a written statement from the Missionary as to the share of the cost
