

January 29, 1933

My dear Harry:

I enclose a communication, which speaks for itself. It contains a Christmas Greeting, sent to your sister Etta. Perhaps, when you are writing to her, you will send it along.

I shall be glad if at some time you will give me the present addresses of the different members of your family, so that I may have them on record here. They have always been kind in remembering me at Christmas, and I have had difficulty once or twice in getting the correct address.

With my best of love to you all,

H. M. Lay, Esq.'s
"Boulderfel",
Barrie, Ontario.
