14. There shall be sent to the Registrar, together with such general statement, a copy of all new rules and of all alterations of rules, and a statement showing the changes of officers, made by the trade union during the year preceeding the date up to which the general statement is made out, and a copy of the rules of the trade union as they exist at that date. R.S., c. 131, s. 17.

RESPECTING PROPERTY.

Powers as to land.

15. Any trade union registered under this Act may purchase, or take upon lease, in the names of the trustees for the time being of such trade union, any land not exceeding one acre, and may sell, exchange, mortgage or let the same; and no purchaser, assignee, mortgagee or tenant shall be bound to inquire whether the trustees have authority for any sale, exchange, mortgage or letting, and the receipt of the trustees shall be a discharge for the money arising therefrom; and for the purposes of this section, every branch of a trade union shall be considered a distinct union. R.S., c. 131, s. 7.

Property
vested in trustees.

16. All real and personal property whatsoever belonging to any trade union registered under this Act shall be vested in the trustees for the time being of such trade union, appointed as provided by this Act, for the use and benefit of such trade union and the members thereof, and the real or personal property of any branch of a trade union shall be vested in the trustees of such branch and be under the control of such trustees, their respective executors or administrators, according to their respective claims or interests; and upon the death or removal of any such trustees the same shall vest in the succeeding trustees for the same estate and interest as the former trustees had therein, and subject to the same trusts, without any conveyance or assignment whatsoever, save and except in the case of Dominion stock, which shall be transferred into the names of such new trustees. R.S., c. 131, s. 8.

PROCEDURE.

Whose the property
may be stated to be.

17. In all actions, suits or indietments or summary proceedings before any court of summary jurisdiction, touching or concerning any property of a trade union or branch, the same shall be stated to be the property of the persons for the time being holding the said office of trustee, in their proper names, as trustees of such trade union without any further description. R.S., c. 131, s. 8.
