

regarded as the garden of Canada. The city being at the head of ship navigation, her local advantages for trade and commerce are unsurpassed. The completion of the various railroads, as lately celebrated, with those already in successful operation, will greatly augment her business resources and facilities, and afford strong inducements to capitalists for investing their funds for the future.

of
the

A
in t

. T
and
eleg
grou

Th
oppo
buil

Th
ment
Offic
Room

Th
situat
three