British and Foreign.

The English papers are delighted with the Canadian premier's vindication of the war.

Rev. Frank Paton, son of Dr. Paton, the veteran missionary, is addressing meetings in Dublin.

The Queen's visit to London was the occasion of the most enthusiastic demonstration on record.

Four fashionable lady palmists were each fined £10 or six weeks' imprisonment at Liverpool for fortune-telling.

Mr. Balfour intimated that the government will not accept intervention from any quarter in settling the South African question.

The Queen's visit to Ireland is now the universal talk. The Dublin Common Council is to present Her Majesty with a loyal address.

Mr. John K. Cameron, of Rothesay, who is at present finishing his course in Glasgow Established Church Hall, has been appointed assistant in Cowlands Parish Church.

One of the anticipated blessings of the projected new cable to Iceland is that it will enable English and other European weather bureau to issue forecasts with more accuracy than heretofore.

The claims of the Indian Famine Fund are impressing themselves on the minds of the Church in Ireland. Over £2,500 has been already forwarded to the Assembly's missionaries for relief purposes.

At a farewell meeting held in Dundee Dr. Patrick was presented with a number of gifts by his ministerial brethren in token of their esteem and their good wishes on his approaching departure for Canada.

Both Street United Presbyterian Church held anniversary services recently. Rev. John Smith, D.D., of Boughton Place Church, Edinburgh, conducted the services both forenoon and evening. The collection amounted to £43.

The proposal to work the new church at West Hampstead as a collegiate charge in connection with St. John's Wood Church (Dr. Monro Gibson) has fallen through. Rev. G. A. Johnston Ross, of Westbourne Grove, was to have become co-pastor with Dr. Gibson.

Camden-road congregation, London (Rev. Dr. Thornton), reports a membership of 569, a net increase of 25, and an income of £1,900. The church supports two local missions and three Sunday Schools with 832 scholars. During the year 19 scholars were received into the membership of the church.

Rev. Hugh Black, of St. George's, Edinburgh, has been preaching the annual sermon of the Commercial Travellers Christian Union in Boughton Place Church. There was a large congregation, and a feature of the service was the singing of solos from the "Creation" and the "Messiah." The collection was taken for the Scotsman Relief Fund, and not for the Benevolent Fund. This is a sign of the times, and common all over the land.

There was great reason for a temperance meeting in Campbelltown, which is noted for distilleries, but has a strong temperance element. The Rev. John M'Queen waxed very indignant over the recent exhibition made by the Chinese dignitary who visited bonded stores in Glasgow, and spoke about Burns' love for whiskey. Mr. M'Queen is a strong admirer of Burns, and defended him at the recent demonstration in connection with the Temperance Jubilee.
